

WANTS GAGE CURBED.

Chandler Calls His Actions "His Insane Career."

TIME FOR SILENCE ON CURRENCY.

He Declares It Political Suicide For Republicans to Open Discussion of the Money Question—Should Take Care of Hawaii and Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senator Chandler of New Hampshire has written a letter to the Washington Post in which he says:

"If the secretary of the treasury and his single gold standard associates will cease their demand for impossible currency legislation congress will pass the necessary appropriation bills, properly take care of Hawaii and Cuba, there will not be a serious party division during the session, and there will be an adjournment in May. Business will revive, the treasury receipts will equal the expenditures, the balance of trade will continue in our favor, and the Republican party will in November, 1898, elect a majority of the house in the fifty-fifth congress.

"On the other hand, if Secretary Gage continues to press upon congress a bill, the object of which, he says, is 'first, to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard,' and the immediate effect of which is to throw doubts upon the sincerity of the president's declarations in favor of continued efforts to secure bimetalism, a political turmoil will arise in congress which will split the now united Republicans in fragments while it will unite and consolidate the now incongruous opposition. It is not feasible to retire the greenbacks; there is more probability that a bill will be sent to the president to increase their amount. It is not possible to secure the passage, through either house, of a bill making the greenbacks into gold notes or authorizing bonds payable in gold. The effort to do either thing will probably result in the passage of a bill for the redemption of the greenbacks in silver dollars and for the payment of all United States bonds in gold or silver coin, in the discretion of the president, who will be commanded to exercise his option for the advantage of the government and not for the advantage of the creditor.

"With such an uproar in congress as these proceedings will create with western congressmen embroiled therein, with presidential vetoes, as threatened by Secretary Gage, under angry discussion, it will happen that all business enterprises and funds and stocks will be disturbed, prices will fall, insolvencies will increase and the Republicans will lose the congressional elections in 1898 as disastrously as they did in 1890 and beyond the hope of a favorable reaction in 1901, at which time, therefore, a Bryan Democratic president and congress will be chosen.

"Whether we are to have one of these results—political safety or the other, political destruction—depends entirely upon the course to be pursued by Secretary Gage and those who are pressing him forward, namely, the Gold Standard League of New York, and the self-constituted monetary conference. How much Secretary Gage cares for the Republican party is not known. Whether President McKinley, whose good faith toward bimetalism is coming to the test, will stop his secretary in his insane career, is not known. It is to be hoped he will. But no political situation has been clearer than the present to sound eyes since the Republican party began its marvelous career 42 years ago. There are times for all things. There is a time to move and a time to keep still, and now is the time to so keep.

"It is simply political suicide for the Republican party in this congress to affirmatively open the discussion of the money question and to bring on year and nay votes upon currency legislation. We ought to await the progress of international bimetalism, the advent of business prosperity and the filling of treasury by the normal workings soon to be seen of the new tariff law. Shall we wait for these things or rush on to self-destruction? President McKinley must decide. Will he act for his people or for his plutocrats? Upon his answer will depend the events of 1898."

NO PLACE FOR RAILROADERS.

Warned to Keep Away From China by a United States Consul.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The first report to the state department from United States Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, contains a warning to American railroad men not to go to China for employment. Says he:

"The American only invites starvation who comes here without a definite contract of employment with some reputable firm made before he leaves America. I must advise United States railway employees that there is at present no market for their labor in China, and, should more roads be constructed, there will be a market only if these roads are built by Americans."

The consul general says he has had many inquiries from American railroad men as to the chance for employment in China, so he describes the small Chinese railroad system to show the hopelessness of looking in that direction for work. There are only two railways in operation with a total of 29.3 miles. They employ only 27 foreigners, of whom four are engineers and the managers and division superintendents. The operatives are practically Chinese and a foreigner cannot compete with them. The highest salaried natives are the telegraph operators at $40 per month. Engineers get $40 to $30 and train hands and trackmen $6 to $10 per month. The pay is in Mexican dollars.

Gideon Denies It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—F. M. Gideon, the clerk of the general land office, who was referred to by Thomas Reddington in the testimony before the senate Pacific railroad committee as having changed the land office records so as to throw 5,000,000 acres of government land to the Northern Pacific road, has made a clear denial of the charge.

NEW THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

One on Broad Line May Be Established in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—There is talk of establishing in New York a theological school which shall train a ministry which shall be not only in thorough sympathy with the special problems of the day, but fully capable of dealing with them in the most practical way.

Those thinking of the new enterprise have considered the splendid equipment of Union Theological seminary, its already liberal endowment, and the aims of those in charge, in the belief that with the execution of the work of that institution upon broad lines the university idea could be realized.

Although the necessary endowments have not yet been secured, enough has been learned, it is said, to assure those interested that nothing else now prevents the carrying out of the project.

The aim is to make the seminary in time a great center of missionary activity. After the study of the great historical lines of worship, the practical application of worship in the daily life of the church will be discussed, with a view to training men for more reverent and effective administration of church ordinances. The mission courses are elective, and have been chosen by more than half of the 150 students in attendance.

WILL PREACH FOR NOTHING.

Rev. Dr. Farrar Relinquishes a Salary of $6,000 a Year.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Rev. Dr. James Farrar, pastor of the First Reformed church, Brooklyn, has determined, as soon as matters can be adjusted to give his life to the preaching of the Gospel without pay. The salary which he relinquishes is $6,000 a year.

His object is the bettering of the spiritual condition of the people of the vicinity of Idlewild, Westmoreland county, Pa., the well-known picnic resort, near where he was born,

PROBABLE SUITS OVER TAXES.

Ex-Secretary of State Chilton's Bondsmen Have Not Settled.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 20.—The state board of public works, acting under the advisement of Attorney General Rucker, has agreed that all corporations doing business in the state which paid their taxes to William E. Chilton, secretary of state under the late Democratic administration, instead of to the auditor, as the laws direct, will have to pay such taxes again or their charters will be declared forfeited.

Ex-Secretary Chilton has made no settlement with the state, but his bondsmen still promise to make good the amount of their liability, $10,000. In addition to this his indebtedness for corporation tax is $18,180.

A delegation of attorneys addressed the board of public works and represented that the proposed action of the auditor is unjust, and if it is attempted the state will have to pay the costs of 1,400 suits. General Malcolm Jackson said that Chilton's shortage should be investigated by the criminal courts.

Murderers Back In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Chris Merry, charged with the murder of his wife, and James Smith, alleged accomplice of Merry, arrived in Chicago, from Princeton, Ky., where they were arrested. Both men were confronted by Joseph Hickey, upon whose confession they were arrested, but they stoutly denied any knowledge of Merry's death, and were finally placed in jail pending an examination tomorrow.

A Two-Headed Baby.

LEE, Mass., Dec. 20.—A two-headed baby was born here to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Dowd. The child died soon after birth. It had two heads, two pairs of shoulders, two arms and a stub of an arm between the neck, two backs of the bones, terminating at the base of the spine, one pair of lungs and weighed 14 pounds. Mrs. Dowd is under five feet and weighs only about 100 pounds. The parents are of old Yankee stock.

Corrigan to Be Cardinal.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—It is semi-officially announced that the college of cardinals at Rome decided at a caucus held recently to confer the cardinal's hat on Archbishop Corrigan, and at the next consistory, which will be held in January, official action will be taken in the matter.

Sir Frank Lockwood Dead.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Sir Frank Lockwood, Liberal member of parliament for York City since 1885, is dead.

NOW ENGLAND'S TURN

Her Fleet Said to Be Active In Chinese Waters.

RUSSIANS NOW AT PORT ARTHUR.

China Persuaded That It Is For the Good of the Country—Japan Expected to Protest—The Chinese Emperor Advised to Move His Capital.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The correspondent of The Times at Peking says: "China approves of the Russian fleet wintering at Port Arthur, being persuaded that this action is taken in the interest of China and necessitated by the German occupation of Kiao-Chau."

A dispatch from Shanghai says the occupation of Port Arthur by Russia cannot fail to provoke popular indignation in Japan, where the public opinion is already excited over the Kiao-Chau affair.

According to another dispatch from Shanghai the high officials of the Chinese court have advised the emperor, in view of further complications, to remove the court to Nanking (the southern capital.) The dispatch says it is reported there that overtures have been made to England to exercise protection over the Yang Tse valley and the West river, and that numerous rumors are current regarding the activity of the British squadron in Chinese waters.

The Times, commenting editorially on the situation in China, says:

"Instead of the kaiser's mailed fist we have Russia's velvet glove; but the grasp is not less vigorous and unyielding. Great Britain ought now courteously to invite China to extend the same privilege to the British fleet at Chusan."

Telegrams from all the continental capitals show that Russia's step at Port Arthur is regarded as tantamount to a permanent occupation and a reply to Germany's action.

The Japs are likely to loudly protest. A St. Petersburg correspondent says there was no agreement between Russia and Germany and the latter simply warned Russia when the occupation of Kiao-Chau was already decided upon.

The Novoe Vremya pretends that Japan has no cause for complaint "since China is only giving the same shelter to Russian ships as Japan had hitherto so kindly afforded."

This view is not held in Berlin, where the papers are already talking of the possibility of Prince Henry having to shake his mailed fist at Japan, that is supposed to be secretly backed up by England.

Some of the Berlin papers express anxiety, but most of them welcome the news from Port Arthur as justifying the German position at Kiao-Chau if not as a final evidence that Russia and Germany are acting together. Curiously enough, Emperor William visited the Russian ambassador on Friday night on his return from Kiel, ostensibly to congratulate him on the name day of Emperor Nicholas. The visit lasted an hour. This is no doubt now that the emperor and the ambassador discussed Chinese affairs.

The Paris papers, without pretending to be deceived by Russia's innocent explanations, are pleased with the action of the ally of France.

The burden of Viennese comment is, what will England do? The British fleet in Chinese waters consists of one ironclad, nine cruisers and 18 smaller men of war.

GERMANY AFTER HAWAII.

A Startling Story Told In Boston—The Kaiser Said to Intend to Seize the Islands and Also Hawaii—Sensational Cypher Dispatches.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—A story of startling international importance is told here. It purports to disclose a remarkable coup planned by Germany, and declares that the ambition of the German emperor and his advisers by no means stops at the acquisition of territory in China. The recent acquisition there, it is declared, is to be simply a base of operations. The fleet just sent out from Kiel under command of Prince Henry, it will be recalled, is provisioned for 15 months.

It is expected, according to the report received here, that before that time has elapsed Germany will have been so firmly entrenched at Kiao-Chau as to be able to strike a killing blow at any influence the United States may hope to exercise in the Pacific ocean by seizing Hawaii from under the very noses of the Americans.

Indeed, it is even hinted that Germany now feels sufficiently well settled to go further. Samoa, it is also declared, will be seized. From the vantage ground of Hawaii, Germany is said to feel that she could menace and control the United States and bend the great republic to her will. A warning blow having been struck at Haiti, a later pretext might be sought to possess a port in the island and menace the United States on the east as well.

Private cypher dispatches received by the Boston agent of an important firm of German capitalists are said to order him to dispose of the firm's holdings in this country on account of the threatened hostile move of the German government.

RUSSIANS AT PORT ARTHUR.

Squadron to Winter There With China's Acquiescence.

St. PETERSBURG, Dec. 20.—It is announced that a Russian squadron under Rear Admiral Reounow has entered Port Arthur on the Chinese coast, with the acquiescence of the Chinese government.

The squadron intends to remain at Port Arthur throughout the winter. This is due solely to the need of a temporary winter station and involves no question of forcible occupation or hostile demonstration or any intention against China, Germany, Japan or any other power.

CATHOLIC FOES OF QUOR.

Arrangements Made For the Next Total Abstinence Convention.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 20.—The national convention of Catholic Total Abstinence societies, in Boston next August, was the subject of a large and enthusiastic conference of delegates from the Boston diocese Sunday. Among those who spoke were Rev. John L. Lowry of St. Paul, in behalf of Archbishop Ireland, and Rev. Patrick H. Riley for Archbishop Williams.

The convention will be presided over by Rev. Father Cleary, "the Father Matthew of the United States," and addresses will be made by Archbishop Ireland and Rev. Father Doyle of the Paulist fathers. A message of greeting will be read from Pope Leo, endorsing the movement and bestowing his blessing upon the doings of the convention. The committee in charge intended to invite Archbishop Martinelli to be present. In connection with the convention there will be a parade in which 20,000 men and boys will participate, the marching clubs coming from New York, Philadelphia, Providence any every town and city in Massachusetts.

CHINESE MINISTER'S VISIT.

Will Attend Christian League Celebration in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception to Wu Ting Fong, the Chinese minister to the United States, who is expected to visit this city this afternoon in connection with the anniversary exercises of the Christian League. A feature of the celebration will be a parade of Chinamen from the mission at Tenth and Race streets to the Academy of Music, where the exercises are to be held. Nearly 5,000 admission tickets have been printed and it is expected that all of them will be used.

Wu Ting Fong and his secretaries will be met by a reception committee consisting of Mr. Poole, Mr. Bond, George Griffith and other representatives of the Christian League and a delegation of the Chinese merchants along Race street. On Tuesday he will visit the Chinese mission, in the work which he is deeply interested, and will probably also accept invitations to visit Gramps' shipyard and the Baldwin Locomotive works.

VICTIM'S GRAVE READY.

Proof That Lingo Intended to Kill Miss Berry in New Jersey.

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 20.—Two boys have found an open and empty grave about four feet deep near Pensacuken. Wagon tracks led to and from the hole, which was in a lonely part of a dense wood. Chief of Police Linderman made an investigation, on the theory that the grave was dug by Francis Lingo for the purpose of burying in it the body of Miss Catherine Berry, whom he endeavored to lure to that locality two weeks ago under the pretense that a wealthy woman had sent him to meet her in response to an advertisement for a position as a companion.

The wagon wheels are similar to those made by a wagon owned by Lingo. John Gaines stated that he loaned a shovel to Lingo. Three persons, whose names are not divulged, state they saw Lingo coming from the woods late at night, carrying a shovel. He returned the shovel the next day.

RALEIGH STARTS TO CHINA.

Departure of the Cruiser Excites Considerable Comment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The sending of the cruiser Raleigh to Chinese waters has excited much comment here. It is held to indicate that important dispatches have been received from Minister Denby and that the Raleigh goes on his recommendation.

Secretary Lonx denies that there is any significance in his order to the Raleigh, but admits that the Asiatic squadron is to be strengthened. The gunboat Helena was given sailing orders also and is on her way to China. This, however, has been in contemplation some time and is not regarded as unusual.

Washington Hesing Dead.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Washington Hesing, proprietor of The Illinois Staats Zeitung, one of the leading German papers of the northwest, and postmaster of Chicago during the last term of President Cleveland, died suddenly of heart disease at his home, Michigan avenue.

MR. DAVIS IN TROUBLE

His Case Is Being Discussed by Ministers.

WORD WAS SENT FROM CHICAGO

He Was Admitted to Steubenville Presbytery at the Spring Meeting In East End and Is Well Known to a Great Many Persons in This Place.

The Steubenville Gazette contains the following startling statement concerning a man who is well known in this place:

"It has transpired since the recent meeting of the Steubenville presbytery that the Rev. Ferdinand Davis, who organized the University class here, was not altogether what he claimed, a Scotch Presbyterian minister of good standing. It seems that while here he was admitted to Steubenville presbytery on a certificate from Scotland, but some suspicion being aroused, inquiry was made of the Scotch presbytery, and the certificate was declared bogus. Meantime the Steubenville presbytery had dismissed him to the Chicago presbytery, and the matter was laid before that body, resulting in further damaging disclosures. The extent of his misdoing it is difficult to determine, for the matter was not referred to in open presbytery."

The question was raised by Reverend Lowry, of Wellsville, who had been in correspondence with the stated clerk of the Chicago presbytery.

Mr. Davis was admitted to the Steubenville presbytery at the meeting held in East End last spring when he delivered a masterly sermon. He has many friends here who will hear more of the particulars before they pass judgment on the matter.

THREE DEATHS.

That Is the Record of the City For Two Days.

Last evening about 6 o'clock Mrs. Mary J. Forrest dropped dead at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Curry, West End. Deceased was aged 84 years, and has been a resident of the city for many years. The funeral services will be held Wednesday.

Mrs. Phoebe Kell died Saturday night at the residence of her son, George C. Kell, Fifth street, from cancer of the stomach, aged 64 years. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Interment will be made at Riverview. Friends of the family are invited.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Beardmore died this morning at her home in Lincoln avenue from a complication of diseases, aged 29 years. A husband and one child are left to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from St. Stephen's church. Interment will be made at Riverview.

Two Cases.

J. K. Williams has entered suit against Samuel C. Dyke for $95.

Robert Potts, an infant, through his guardian Thomas Potts, has commenced an action against George Barnish for $17.45 claimed due for work and labor. The cases will be heard Thursday by Squire Rose.

A Main Burst.

Saturday morning the gas main to the new Sebring pottery burst in the river, about 20 feet from the Ohio shore, with a pressure of 120 pounds. The damage will be repaired as soon as possible.

—Miss Annie Hilbert of Second street, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Connoll, Fifth avenue, Pittsburg.

—Mrs. O. S. Reed left this morning for Ada, O., where she will remain a few days. From there she will go to Indiana for an extended visit.

CHALLENGE IS ACCEPTED

Rovers Will Play Against Homestead.

ONE HUNDRED IS THE STAKE

The Contest Must Take Place on a Given Date, but the Liverpool Players Would Prefer to Have a Series With a Game In Each Town.

Manager Maxwell, of the Homestead football team, has accepted the challenge of the Rovers to play for $100 a side, provided the game is played at Homestead next Monday. The Rovers are perfectly willing to stand by their agreement, but it is probable they would prefer neutral grounds upon which to play the game. A series could be arranged, one to be played in each city, and in case of a tie the final game to be played on neutral grounds.

A well known checker player this week contains a problem by L. J. Vair, the Ravenna checkerist, who is well known in the city.

John Parry, the Homestead boxer, is in the city, and will probably take part in an entertainment New Year's eve, to be given by the East Liverpool Athletic club.

TID BITS.

Dodger Gathers Them While Wandering Through the City.

Bought some oranges Saturday night last; plump and tempting looking; peeled 'em; inner skin pure white; temptation increased; took full mouthful; anticipated glorious feast; ugh! awful! sour enough to make the teeth of a cast iron monkey chatter and give a laughing hyena fits. Selah. Turn on the light. Made me wish Mr. Canning had an option on the whole orange trade and had closed the deal.

Fakir in the Diamond labored under difficulties Saturday afternoon. Cold nipped his whole physical organization; stamped feet; wrung hands; blew nasal organ; pounded chest; said big bad words; bought an option on Florida; kicked over store box and made a bee line for a healthy gas fire and swore that he never did like the infernal game of freezeout anyhow.

Bring on your candidates for mayor. The woods are full of 'em. Chase 'em out of the bunch and into the openin'. Here's the tallysheet to date: Stevenson, Smith, Wyman, Gilbert, Bough, McClain, with the Democracy yet to hear from and Jethro still out in the frost. Must be a big salary in view.

"Heretic" sends in the following conundrum, and asks that "Dodger" shall answer the same, to the best of his ability: "Will a true holiness man pay his debts, said debts having been contracted before the cleansing process took place in his inner man?" Dodger makes answer, in the language of the Reverend DaFoe, at one time pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, East Liverpool: "Yes, a true holiness man will. That's one of the first things he will think of and do. He cannot be a true holiness man and do otherwise." As Dodger indites this matter, the devil in the sanctum says: "Say, Dodger, I'm powerful glad to know that. I reckon that DaFoe knew what he was talkin' about? He was a mighty good man, even if he did belong to the ROTTEN GANG Holiness Taylor gets hot under the waistcoat about. But, say, Dodger, suppose you whisper that answer of DaFoe's through the columns of the NEWS REVIEW. It might be a mighty good thing for some of the merchants and business men in this neck of woods, and might possibly help the printer along."

When a so-called holiness man stands in the pulpit and, under the guise of sanctification and holiness (?), uses language fit only for the slums and the saloons, he must be not only a fakir but a fool, and the next thing the public may expect is to hear of the fellow charging so much per head for admission to see and hear him. When such a fellow stands in the pulpit and calls a man a liar, he has but a very slim chance to play on a lyre in glory, even if a flock of cherubims should endeavor to "boost" him over the wall.

DODGER.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

The Sons of St. George will make note that an important meeting will be held next Wednesday night, December 22. Very important business will be transacted. All members should be present. By order
WILLIAM WACE,
President.

A POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Thieves Blow Open the Safe at Canal Dover, O.

CANAL DOVER, O., Dec. 20.—The post-office here has been robbed. The safe was blown open and $300 in money, stamps and valuables taken. It is believed that professionals did the job. The front door was jimmied and the thieves crawled through the money window to gain the rear part of the office, where they worked unmolested, while Night Watchman Cordan McClaney patrolled in front.

The burglars helped themselves to $75 belonging to Postmaster H. W. Streb, together with an unknown amount of cash belonging to a local building and loan association of which he was treasurer. In the safe was also a diamond ring, belonging to Miss Clara Streb, deputy postmistress, and four registered letters to parties here. These the robbers took also.

The evening before the robbery Postmaster Streb placed in the First National bank $1,400 worth of stamps for safe-keeping. Postoffice Inspector A. R. Holmes strongly suspects three men who have been in the city for three days. He is now following them.

COTELL DECLARED NOT GUILTY.

His Lawyers Claim They Know the Real Murderer.

AKRON, Dec. 20.—The lawyers of Romie Cotell, the boy who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life about a year ago for killing Alvin Stone, his wife and hired man, say the boy was wrongly convicted. They assert that a confession was extorted from him by the detectives, when, according to experts, he was irresponsible. The lawyers say they know the real murderer and have almost enough evidence to convict him. They promise to cause his arrest soon.

Opposed to Sunday Funerals.

YOUNGSTOWN, Dec. 20.—Rev. Frank Damer, pastor of the Wilson Avenue Methodist church, has gone on record as opposed to Sunday funerals. In his sermon he said: "The crowds which attend Sunday funerals are prompted largely by curiosity and kindred motives rather than any respect for the dead or sympathy for the friends. The Sabbath should be a day of rest, which it cannot be for the pastor, undertaker and others when the labor of a Sunday funeral is imposed upon them."

Aged Woman Abused.

ASHTABULA, Dec. 20.—Two masked burglars entered the house of Mrs. Margaret Barrett at Jefferson and spent some time in looking through the entire house for valuables, but could find nothing. They awakened Mrs. Barrett, and, by torturing her with lighted matches, tried to get her to tell where valuables could be found. Lighted matches were held under her finger tips, to her eyebrows, and some of her hair was burned. Mrs. Barrett, who is 75 years old, was alone in the house.

Guilty of First Degree Murder.

WARREN, O., Dec. 20.—Louis Yura has been found guilty of murder in the first degree, after a trial lasting several days. Yura was accused of killing Isaac Hill, a farmer, whose house he visited for the purpose of robbery.

HAPPENED IN THIS STATE.

Robert Watt, for robbing cars at Deforest got a year in the penitentiary.

Rev. O. A. Hills, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church, Wooster, has resigned, owing to ill health.

Alfred Sinclair, aged 35, a druggist of Beallsville, committed suicide by shooting. His father, Judge Westner Sinclair, hanged himself some years ago.

Samuel Harpster, aged 17, was arrested at Wooster for shoplifting. He had a box with him with an ingeniously constructed trap door to conceal stolen articles.

Youngstown chamber of commerce will this week select a committee to try to secure the proposed government armor plate plant.

Mrs. Sarah Chapman Wilson of Buffalo, 86 years old, was found apparently demented in the streets of Cleveland. Her son, S. V. Harris of St. Paul, came on to care for her.

Mrs. Ballington Booth Ill.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Mrs. Ballington Booth, wife of the commander of the Volunteers of America, is dangerously ill in the Presbyterian hospital. She is suffering from an injury to a blood vessel near the heart, which may prove fatal. Mrs. Booth's condition became so alarming two weeks ago that she was obliged to discontinue a tour she was making in nearby states and go to the hospital for treatment.

Four Killed by Locomotive Explosion.

REPTON, Ala., Dec. 30.—On the Bear Creek logging road a locomotive exploded, killing the engineer, John O'Conner, the fireman, Jack Clipper, and two trainmen, John Johnson and Henry Vickery. The explosion was caused by a defective flue.

A Spanish Official to Resign.

MADRID, Dec. 20.—Lieutenant General Marin, captain general of Puerto Rico, is about to resign, owing to the impossibility of reconciling the different parties in the island with a view of establishing autonomy.

Injured in a Tunnel.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 20.—William Kelly, aged 23, was instantly killed and H. G. Hickson, aged 25, seriously injured by a locomotive while walking in the Bely line tunnel between Dolphin and Lantate streets.

Explosion on a Vessel.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—In an explosion aboard the British steamer Southern Cross, from Buenos Ayres for Liverpool, which has arrived at Madeira, several persons were killed or wounded.

An Old Catechism.

At a meeting of the Worcester Anti-quarian society Senator Hear said that when he was a boy in Worcester a catechism was in use of which the following is a sample:

Where is hell?
Under the earth—a place of darkness.
Who live in hell?
The devil, his angels and bad men.
What do they do in hell?
They curse God and sin continually.
Do you deserve to go to hell?
I do.

For any one to assert that petroleum oil possesses no therapeutic power is simply to make an assertion of ignorance, for petroleum, or rock oil, as it is sometimes called, is, it is well known to those who have paid any attention to the subject, used with the most beneficial results in all chronic bronchial and pulmonary disorders.

Seven Injured in a Collision.

PONTIAC, Ills., Dec. 20.—An open switch on the Chicago and Alton railroad was the cause of a collision between the St. Louis limited passenger and a freight train on the side track. The brakeman, whose duty it was to close the switch, was unable to move it. The passenger train was approaching. He jumped on the track and signaled for it to stop. The engineer applied the airbrakes and reversed his engine, but it was too late, and the passenger went crashing into the freight. Seven people were injured.

Opposing the Prizefighters.

TRENTON, Dec. 20.—Rev. A. W. Wishart of the Central Baptist church preached against the proposed bringing of out-of-town pugilists here to perform before an athletic club. He will ask the other ministers and church people generally to join him in asking the police to interfere. Rev. Mr. Wishart also spoke against the present practice of giving entertainments with local boxers.

Bryan Attended Church.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 20.—Mr. Bryan attended divine services Sunday at the Union Evangelical church and was also the guest of President Diaz at the distribution of prizes to the Mexican exhibitors at the Chicago and Atlanta expositions.

Plate Glass Strike Ended.

KOKOMO, Ind., Dec. 20.—The plate glass strike is over, the 1,600 men in the Kokomo and Elwood plants having accepted the company's proposition for polishes to be paid for piece work. Both factories will resume operations this week.

Was Rendered at the First Presbyterian Church.

STRONG WORDS FROM REV. SWIFT

In a Sermon Delivered at the Methodist Protestant Church—Professor Reed Continued Preaching on Revelations—Other Services in the City Yesterday.

The largest congregation gathered for a long time, and that means much for the First Presbyterian church, heard Doctor John Lloyd Lee last night deliver one of the best sermons he has ever preached in this city. The subject, "The Everyday Soldier," was treated in a comprehensive manner, the gentleman showing that there was no doubting the bravery of the young men of America, and that all would rise to defend the nation's flag, yet a very small proportion of them dared to put on the armor and fight for Jesus—that they left to the women.

The music attracted much attention. Mrs. J. C. Thompson sang as a solo the beautiful "Oh to Be More Like Jesus," one of W. L. Thompson's latest compositions. Portions of it were then rendered by the choir and congregation.

Methodist Protestant Church.

At the morning service the pastor spoke from the 21st verse of Jude: "Keep yourselves in the love of God." The reverend gentleman spoke along the line of our individual responsibility, as free moral agents, and said in part:

"Look to your individuality; you are a responsible creature, a keeper, and in a measure a master. God first created Adam and then said unto him: 'Adam, this is the garden of Eden; you are a keeper thereof and must impress yourself upon what I have given you—that which I have entrusted to your care; you are, to a great extent, master of this domain; you can partake of all the fruits and flowers around and about you, except of the tree of life; in your ability to do as commanded, and hold yourself in restraint, you show the full measure of your power and ability to take care of that which I have entrusted to your care.'"

"My friends, God has not placed you here as mere machines, but as free agents, with power to will and power to choose. The Master places no limit to your choice. Oh, the height, the depth, the breadth of the power given unto man. What are we ourselves? What relationship do we bear to ourselves? God may call unto you and you can say unto Him, the infinite creator of all things: 'No, sir, I will not let you into my heart.' God will not force his way into your heart. He stands knocking at your heart's door and will come in and sup with you and you with him; but you must first open the door, respond to the knocking, and invite the holy spirit to enter. Isn't this a wonderful thought, God, the all wise, the all powerful, the infinite, knocking at the door of a man's heart; poor, finite man, and asking to be taken into fellowship? You must know yourself. There is a large class of people who believe that, as Jesus died for all, then all will be saved. Don't let such a thought enter your mind for a moment. You will be saved or lost; the choice, God given, rests with you. There are those who believe in a second choice or second probation. You have no authority for any such hope. Now is your opportunity. God has given you this life in which to prepare for eternity, and if you fail to embrace this opportunity then are you doomed, and doomed forever.

"You are responsible. No man goes into sin and crime without his own consent. You can resolve, if you will, to resist evil, and God, the greatest of all powers, the all-conquering, will carry you to victory if you so desire. By yielding to sin and depraved tastes there will surely come a time when your will power for good will be lost; then you are no longer a free agent, but a slave, under the whip and lash of an awful master. You are yourself when you are master and when you retain your individuality, and stand in the reflected light emanating from God. You cannot corrupt the light from the sun. It will shine through and beyond impurities and retain its purity. Just so is the light reflected from the Son of Righteousness, cleansing and purifying upon every hand. Let the light from the Holy Spirit shine upon you and enter your heart and life, and you will surely know yourself aright, for time and for eternity."

The edifice was crowded with an attentive audience when the pastor com-

It Is Ridiculous—

For any man to claim to make money by selling at a loss. It's simple to say it, and simple to swallow it. If the farmer raised only grain for grain what he planted, he would starve. If the merchant sells his goods dollar for dollar at the price he bought them, he is out in time, labor and expenses.

—WE MUST LIVE.—

And we live by our profits, but we don't prey on the public. Our price is actually lower than the much bragged up "below cost" of others. Good goods, fresh and new, don't have to be sold below cost to get rid of them. Our goods are good—they pay us to handle and you to buy. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, DEC. 20.

The Christmas number of the New York Crockery Journal is a beauty, and its advertising pages show the renewed activity in the pottery trade.

Even though Secretary Gage has not proved to congress that his currency schemes amount to anything, he has shown that when it comes to vociferousness he is almost equal to a Kansas Populist.

With free trade a dead issue and free silver passed from view, the Democratic press is making strenuous efforts to transform the Cuban question into a matter for discussion in the congressional campaign. The extent to which the poor old party is pushed is thus made decidedly plain.

Over in Bowling Green they tried the experiment of making every tramp who comes to town and happens to be caught, work out his freedom on a stone pile. It has worked very well, and a large number of wanderers have cracked stone during the days specified by the mayor, and now no tramps walk around Bowling Green.

SOUND money does not necessarily mean that the Republican party must adopt every one of Secretary Gage's ideas in order to stand by the St. Louis platform. That gentleman may find, after congress is done with some of his schemes, that even though he is at the head of the treasury department his views are not the views of a great many sensible men.

A CHANGE.

"To the victor belongs the spoils," is a slogan that savors of barbarism," is what the Leetonia Reporter says of the sentiment in the Republican party concerning a modification of the civil service law. Did the Reporter utter the same sentiment in the months immediately following the first election of Grover Cleveland to the presidency, or did it howl itself hoarse with that phrase which so soon became the stock in trade of the average Democratic editor, "Turn the rascals out." We are not in position to say what the Reporter did at that time, but if it was then the rock ribbed Democratic organ it has been in recent years, it followed its leaders and railed at civil service. Thus do we see how the shoe pinches when it happens to be on the other foot.

PROTECTING THE FLAG.

A few years ago Judge Caldwell, of Cincinnati, introduced into congress a measure for the protection of the American flag. It was warmly supported in the house of representatives, but it was taken up in the senate when some of the members were thinking more of money than they were of patriotism, and the bill never became a law. Now the word comes that a similar measure will be presented soon after the holidays, and an effort will be made to have it passed.

There is no reason in the world why such a law should not be on the statute books of the nation. It should not only be there, but it should be enforced to the letter, providing a penalty that will speedily break up the practice or punish those who transgress the law with a severe punishment. If the people cannot in any other way be taught to respect and honor the emblem of their country, let them be made to feel the force of their country's power. Perhaps that will teach them the lesson they should long ago have learned.

MR. THOMPSON'S HYMN.

menced his sermon, following up the line of the "woes" described in the book of Revelations. He said, in part:

"The second woe is subsequent to the year 783, embracing a period of 396 years and four months, dating from Mohamet's endeavor to conquer the world through the power of the sword. For 58 years the forces of the infidels were held upon the banks of the river Euphrates. In 1057 the Euphrates was crossed. Peter, the Hermit, raised the cry that the cross was being overshadowed by the crescent and that the holy city of Jerusalem was in danger, and men, women and children responded to the call and became crusaders, with the object of rescuing the holy city from the grasp of the infidel. Now comes the invention of gunpowder at the hands of a Dane, and in 1453 the walls of Constantinople were battered down, and the pride of the west fell. From 1057 to 1453 is embraced 396 years and four months, fitting in with the prophecy to an absolute certainty; from the crossing of the Euphrates to the downfall of Constantinople. Right here let me say that, while the Romish church, as a church, was full of villainess, demon worship and other awful features, there were notable exceptions in favor of God and the right. God has had a sacramental host in the ranks of all religions. In the ranks of the Roman Catholic church there was embraced much that was pure and good. It was so then—it is so today. Good and true men, in all churches, rise superior to bigotry, superstition and demon worship. The Roman Catholic church, as a church, then trailed the flag of King Emanuel in the dust. Now comes the time described subsequent to the fall of Constantinople. What is the great and mighty power described? It is the open book of God; opened to the masses by Luther, and, under the providence of God, will never again be closed, no longer a sealed volume. Under the rule and power of the Roman Catholic church, the blessed Bible had been virtually a sealed book to the masses, the people. But now, oh praise the Lord, the good tidings of great joy contained in the scriptures, in holy writ, are cast before the common people. Luther, the son of a Mausfeld miner, reads from the holy scriptures in the streets of Wittemburg, proclaiming the fact that men are not saved by works, but faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of the only true God. Faith in Christ is now to lift up the souls of men. The news went to Rome as to what this little monk was doing. Wetzel was then engaged in the sale of indulgences; indulgence to commit sin, any kind, grade or class of sin, even to the heinous crime of murder, for the investment of so much money, to fill the papal coffers. Luther was horrified at the awfulness and depravity of such a measure, and remarked: 'I'll put a hole in Wetzel's drum.' Then Luther appealed to the Pope, for he was loyal to the Roman Catholic faith, and believed in the Pope as he believed in Christ. Denunciations came hot against Luther from the hands of the Pope. Luther was astounded and dismayed. He was commanded, in no uncertain tones, to yield and act and write in accordance with the wishes of the Pope of Rome; he wanted to be loyal to church and pope; but a still, small voice, as from God, commanded him to obedience to a higher power than any human being, pope, cardinal, priest or layman; and thank God, he obeyed that voice. Again came the thunders from Rome, the seven hilled city, the seven thunders; but Luther stood firm and conquered, through God and the right, as God has himself proclaimed shall eventually be the result in all cases backed by right and truth. Out of darkness of evil, sin, corruption and the power of Satan, comes Wickliff, Melancthon and a host of others, into the marvelous light and liberty of God. "Write not," was God's command to Luther, and he obeyed God rather than the pope, and the history of Luther's God-given courage and victory has thrilled the world unto the present time and will continue to do so while time shall last, and until the glorious message contained in the 'open book,' the living flaming, blessed word of God, shall electrify and enlighten all the nations of the world."

The 'woes' will be continued on Sunday night next at the Christian church. You are invited to be present, and will be given a warm welcome.

THREE ELDERS ARE OUT

Through the Adoption of a Long Resolution.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH DIFFERENCES

Eliminated In a Warm Congregational Meeting Yesterday Morning When Professor Reed Was Sustained by a Majority of the Members.

A difference of opinion regarding the merits of Prof. O. S. Reed, pastor of the Christian church, has existed for some time. Yesterday it culminated in what was probably the warmest congregational meeting ever held in the city.

Three officers of the church, Elders Vodrey, Scott and Crites, have been anxious to have Professor Reed resign, but many other members of the congregation have been equally anxious to have the gentleman continue in his position. A number of stormy meetings have been held, and, while persons acquainted with the facts have discussed the matter with warmth, but few of the details have ever reached the public ear. At length it became necessary to settle the troublesome question, and that is what caused the unusual scenes yesterday.

A resolution was introduced by E. D. Marshall. It was signed by 27 male members of the church, and when put to vote was adopted by 137 yeas to seven nays. The debate was long and animated.

The resolution recited at length the troubles of the past few months, and was freely discussed, being passed by a vote of 137 to 7. The official result of the meeting was given out today as follows:

"By vote of the congregation, 137 to 7, the offices of O. C. Vodrey, John Scott and Emmitt Crites were declared vacant."

ARRESTED IN INDIANA.

Sheriff Gill Found a Butler Township Teacher.

LISBON, Dec. 20.—[Special]—Geo. H. Rogers, one of the most promising young men of Butler township, is in jail, having been brought here from Logansport, Ind., this morning by Sheriff Gill.

Rogers was a school teacher, boarding with the parents of Miss Ella Mockerman, aged 15 years, of Teagarden. When he discovered his plight he fled to Indiana. The special grand jury indicted him, and Sheriff Gill going to Columbus secured the required requisition papers. From there he went to Logansport, and arrested young Rogers. They arrived here this morning.

ALL HAD A SKATE.

It Was Indeed a Very Dangerous Day.

"The whole town has a skate on today" remarked a bright young man this morning as he gazed on the slippery streets and then proceeded to cut more pigeon wings than he ever believed his gymnastic training allowed.

But it was the same condition throughout the city. The streets were a sheet of glass, and happy was the man, woman and child who escaped without a bump or two. There were a great many accidents. A small boy broke his arm at the Sixth street school, and a stranger from Cumberland fell on Market street and cut his chin.

On the River.

For Sunday considerable business was transacted along the river yesterday. At this port only three boats tied in, but the business was in excess of that done on Sunday for some time.

The Kanawha, Ben Hur and Keystone State passed up, and all had large cargoes of poultry.

Passed down, Virginia, Lorena, Boaz, Pacific, Crusier, Jim Brown, William G. Horner, Mariner and John W. Alies.

The Boaz will go to New Orleans, and at Louisville will increase its tow.

The rain will not cause the river to rise materially, and today the marks at the wharf registered 13.6 feet and falling.

Keystone State and Kanawha are the packets down this evening.

The steamer Clifton passed up at noon with a barge of fire brick in tow.

Two Parties.

The dance given Saturday evening at Brunt's was largely attended.

A number of young people from the city will attend a reception to be given Christmas eve, at New Brighton.

Once Lived Here.

Wesley Chain, a former resident of the city, is dangerously ill at his home in New Castle with an attack of typhoid fever.

WELLSVILLE.

MANY ACCIDENTS

But No One Was Seriously Hurt During the Day.

Wellsville was a sheet of ice today, and people were slipping in all directions, but no serious accidents happened. Any number of people fell, and bumps and bruises were very common. Horses had a hard time of it, and a number fell.

"If we haven't an ordinance compelling property owners to put salt on the pavements when they are icy we should have one," said a prominent resident. "We have had a good example of the need of it today. I'll wager I have seen a dozen people fall who would have escaped if residents had only sprinkled a little salt."

The News of Wellsville.

Robert Farriday, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg engineering corps, is home from Cleveland, where he has been on business.

Harry Irwin was seized by a sudden illness on the street, Saturday night, but was able to walk home.

Will Whitten spent Sunday with friends in Toronto.

Frank Howard is home from Corry, Pa., where he has been attending school.

Patrick Neville, a former operator at the shops, who has been working in Columbus, talked to a few of his Wellsville friends at the station while on his way to Smith's Ferry.

Father Halligan went to Cleveland this morning.

Mrs. John Wooley went to Pittsburg this morning.

Mrs. Powell, of Queen City, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Homer Householder spent Sunday with friends across the river.

It was reported this morning that a robbery had occurred at a Main street business house, but there seems to have been nothing in the story.

It is said that a prominent business firm will dissolve partnership the first of the year.

Two Liverpool men fought on Second street Saturday night. There were no arrests.

The little child of Conductor Swartz died yesterday of grip fever.

Will Kiddy died yesterday. Typhoid fever was the cause.

Lisbon's Library.

LISBON, Dec. 20.—[Special]—The library association last Saturday transferred its library of 285 volumes to the trustees of the Lepper library, for which Mrs. Lepper, of Cleveland, recently donated $10,000. The building will be completed in a few weeks.

The Usual Rest.

Business at the freight depot has been very light during the last few days. This slump is caused by the holidays, and during this time of the year all over the line business is slack.

Abraham Lincoln said "The tariff question will last as long as the government itself." Therefore every voter should study it. The Home Market Bulletin of Boston is the best help. It is in our club list.

BELL PEOPLE TO PAY

The Accumulated Taxes of Five Years.

WAS PUT ON THE DUPLICATE

The Auditor of State Instructed Auditor Harvey to Collect For Every Instrument In the County—East Liverpool Leads With a Big Margin.

LISBON, Dec. 20.—[Special]—The Bell Telephone company has escaped taxation for many years in Ohio, but now it has been placed on the tax duplicate of this county, charged with taxes amounting to $16,625.58. The amount assessed is due on the telephones in use in the county by the Central District company. They number 839. These instruments are the exclusive property of the Bell company, and are leased by them to other concerns. Auditor Harvey received instructions last week from the auditor of state to proceed in the matter, as the attorney general had given it as his opinion that the property is taxable. The amounts to be collected for the different towns are as follows:

Liverpool, $6,303.67; Wellsville, $1,604.94; Salem, $4,450.64; Lisbon, $1,605.75; Leetonia, $690.20; Salineville, $723.04; Palestine, $927.36; Columbiana, $307.78; Waterford, $12.20.

About 25,000 instruments are in use in the state.

J. D. West Sustained Painful Injuries Last Night.

HIS NOSE CUT AND BROKEN

And His Chest Seriously Hurt—He Is Not In Bed, and Will Recover—He Believed He Was In His Room When at the Head of the Stairway.

J. D. West is suffering from the results of an accident.

Last night Mr. West heard the door bell ring, and knowing he was wanted left his bed. He walked to the hallway, but not yet quite awake he imagined he was still in his room. Taking a step forward he plunged down the stairway, rolling to the door. The sound aroused his family and they hastened to the spot. Mr. West was returned to bed and a physician was called. He found that the gentleman's nose was cut and broken, his chest was injured and his ankle sprained. He also sustained a number of bruises.

While cleaning a window in the McFall building, Saturday afternoon, a little girl pushed her hand through the glass. Half a dozen stitches were required to close the wound.

The gentlemen put in the exchange before the Bell company entered that section, but when they had it in working order their opponents stepped in and secured a large proportion of the business with the result that the pioneers were willing to quit.

Excursion Rates.

Following the annual custom, ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines will sell excursion tickets Dec. 24, 25 and 31, 1897, and Jan. 1, 1898, for the Christmas and New Year holidays. Tickets will not be sold to adults for less than 25 cents, nor to children for less than 15 cents. Return limit of excursion tickets will include Jan. 4, 1898. For rates, time of trains and further information please apply to nearest ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines.

A New City Directory.

R. L. Polk & Co., of Pittsburgh, who published the last East Liverpool city directory, will issue their second edition for 1897-8 early in the spring, and their representatives are now in the city gathering the necessary information. The second edition will be off the press about April first, and the publishers promise improvements in the information, making the work more worthy of patronage.

Better Than Ever.

Miss Kennedy, the hypnotist, entertained a large audience at the Grand last Saturday night. She has improved wonderfully since she was last in the city, and gives a much better performance than formerly.

Miss Kennedy will be here during the entire week, and it is safe to say that she will display her abilities before a large audience each night.

One Horse Fell.

This morning a horse tied in West Market street broke loose and started to run off. It reached the Diamond, when it slipped and fell, and was captured by the street force.

Many teams that were not sharply shod had trouble traveling the streets, and many horses fell.

Will Shoot Tomorrow.

The live bird shoot to have been held last Friday at Rock Spring and postponed on account of the bad weather, has been transferred to the grounds of the Junction Park Gun club, Rochester, and will take place tomorrow. A number of sportsmen from the city will attend.

Have You Seen 'Em?

Those elegant cabinet pictures at Dick Edmonston's. No other photographic work in this city can compare with that done by Edmonston.

Mush and Milk Social.

Christian church, Tuesday, Dec. 21, Benefit church fund. Admission and supper, 10 cents. Commence at 5 and close at 10. Bring all your lady friends.

The Citizen's National bank, with headquarters on Fourth street, at the old postoffice, is now ready for business.

A NIGHT SONG.

Under the white moon, Nita,
The lilies lie awake,
And red as blood in flower and bud,
And all for your sweet sake,
The eager rose o'erleaps the close
And climbs the columned wall
To hide his face in the drifts of lace
That over your lattice fall.

The dead sweet scent of the woodbine
Some languid breeze hath stirred,
And out of the dark, dew haunted park
Floats the pipe of a restless bird,
And far and faint the gurgle and plaint
Of the wood brook sounds alone
As I listen and pine for some answering
sign,
Some whisper of thine, my own!

I lie with the lilies, Nita,
Under thy lattice bars,
And the infinite night brims over
With the glory of moon and stars,
And the wooing woodbine's passionate spice
Out of the darkness blows
And faints and dies with the mingled sighs
Of perfumed lily and rose.

Yet rest thee, my beloved, since
No prayer of mine may win
The crystal walls of slumber
That shut thee softly in.
But, oh, that the mystic angel
Who keepeth the pearly key
Of sleep would open some door of dreams
And lead thee, sweet, to me!

BUFFALO BILL'S START.

More Accident Made the Well Known Scout a Showman.

An old Nebraskan was speaking of Buffalo Bill recently, and incidentally he told how he came to engage in the show business.

"Cody was for years a government scout on the western plains," said the Nebraskan man, "and it was when he conducted the buffalo exterminating expedition for the entertainment of the Grand Duke Alexis in 1870—I think it was—that he got his name. Cody at that time distinguished himself by the number of buffaloes he killed, and thereby earned his cognomen, which was given him by the duke. While he was well known as a scout, he would probably have never been widely known as a showman except for an accident.

"It was in 1881 that the people of North Platte, Neb., near which town was Cody's ranch, decided to celebrate the Fourth of July, and at the suggestion of John Kieth, who is a wealthy ranchman at Sutherland and North Platte and formerly claim adjuster of the Union Pacific, they selected a wild west show. Cody was one of the men most prominently interested in the scheme, and to him was left the work of securing the cowboys and Indians to help out the show. In North Platte at the time was an old stagecoach owned by Jim Stephenson of Omaha, who was the proprietor of the Deadwood-Sidney and other western stage lines. At the suggestion of Cody the Indians were to attack the coach and be repulsed by the cowboys and soldiers.

"That Fourth was the hottest celebration of American independence ever seen in Nebraska. The Omaha papers had men to cover it, and it attracted a crowd from all parts of the west. The programme which Cody and Kieth arranged included riding wild horses, shooting, rope throwing and all the other amusements and business proceedings of a western man.

"It was a few days after the entertainment, if such it may be called, that Matt Kieth, no relation of John, but an old time western man, told Cody that it was a big thing and ought to be repeated every Fourth of July. Cody at once said that it was something new in American entertainments, and he believed that by taking the aggregation east he could make money. The matter was discussed in North Platte, and finally Cody said that he would advance the money and start out. He did so, and his success is well known.

"When he first started, he had but a small show, but he has added to it. He got with him Major Burke, Sherm Canfield, Bill McCune, and last, but by no means least, Nate Salisbury. There was a quartet that cannot be beat, and with Cody boomed the business. Bill has made and spent a dozen fortunes and is today making money like a cranberry merchant."—New York Press.

Struck the Right Man.

During a visit to Massachusetts a distinguished author was invited by a friend to a meeting of an agricultural society, then holding its annual session in the town.

The invitation was accepted, and author and friend took seats near the door. Nearly every farmer in the house had something to say. Finally the president, pointing toward the author, said:

"Everybody's given us a talk to-night, except the farmer down there by the door—I mean the brother with the hazel beard, the boots and the slouch hat. I can tell by his looks that he's a farmer, and nothing but a farmer, and I call upon him to take the floor and tell us how crops are in his neighborhood."

The man referred to was Hamlin Garland, but he was equal to the occasion, and rising he said:

"Yes, I'm a farmer, and I'm proud of it, but just now I'm doing a little literary work in order to get money enough to pay off my hands."—Atlanta Constitution.

His Advantages.

NAMES OF PEARLS.

About Five Thousand Small Ones Can Be Bought For Nine Dollars.

Pearls are named according to their size. The very large are called paragon pearls; when the size of a cherry, cherry pearls; medium are called piece pearls; smallest, dust pearls. The oval and long are termed pear pearls, while badly formed specimens are known as baroques. The value of pearls varies, of course, with the quality and general colors, but the piece, seed and dust pearls always have a market price.

The cherry and paragon are sold on an entirely different basis. If many fine ones are on the market at a time, they may be had at reasonable rates. Some years they bring almost any price. The last two years especially, the dealers say, there has been a great scarcity of fine pearls, although there is no falling off in the supply of the small stuff.

When a pearl exceeds one carat in weight, it is sold separately. Under that weight they are sold in parcels and become less valuable as they become smaller. The smallest dust pearls collected average about 5,000 to the troy ounce and are rated at about $9 per ounce. If, on the contrary, one paragon weighing an ounce (or 150 carats) was on sale, it would bring any amount from $30,000 to $200,000, according to quality.—Philadelphia Times.

RESOLUTION.

DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE Pennsylvania avenue from Mulberry street to the east line of the lands of T. J. Andrews.

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Council of the City of East Liverpool (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring) it is necessary to improve Pennsylvania avenue in the following manner: First, by grading the roadway and the south sidewalk between the points above named and grading the north sidewalk from the west line of lot 1088 to the east line of the lands of T. J. Andrews. Second, by setting stone curbing and completing the sidewalk on the south side of said street by paving from Mulberry street to the east line of lot 2281 and setting stone curbing and completing the sidewalk on the north side of said street by paving from the west line of lot 1088 to the east line of lot 1852. If necessary to make a complete job the old pavements shall be taken up and relaid.

Third, by constructing the sewers and drains and street intersections necessary to make a complete job of work. All bricks for sidewalks and street crossings shall be of the first grade of roadway paving bricks. The work shall be done in accordance with plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer and under his supervision. The expense of the said improvement shall be levied and assessed on the property bounding and abutting thereon in accordance with the law and ordinances on the subject of assessments. The assessments therefor to be paid in ten annual installments if deferred and the same collected as required by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed. Bonds may be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time prescribed in the assessing ordinance, and the City Clerk is hereby directed to have this resolution published for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the corporation and to notify the proper persons of the passage of the resolution and make return as required by law.

Passed this 23d day of November, 1897.

FIREMAN LEE KILLED

Well Known Riverman Was Horribly Mangled.

CYLINDER HEAD BLEW OUT

The Piston Broke Both His Legs and Injured Him Internally—Death Claimed Him While on the Way to the Hospital.

Two accidents occurred on the Ohio river Saturday, and one resulted in the death of a well known riverman.

The towboat B. O. Wood was on its way to Pittsburg and had passed Parkersburg but a short distance when the accident happened.

No cause for the accident is known. The boat was making fast time with a large tow and Fireman William Lee was resting in the engine room. Without any warning the head of the cylinder on one of the engines burst and the piston rod crashed through, striking Lee with a terrible force, breaking both legs and injuring him internally. Those in charge of the boat did not think he was seriously hurt and turned back to Parkersburg to summon medical attention. As there is a marine hospital in Wheeling, Captain Elsey thought it best to take the injured man there, but while on the journey death claimed him.

Lee had been on the river a number of years, and was known by many persons in this place.

Saturday afternoon, a short distance below Bellaire, the Sam Brown ran into the Ohio bank, and lost nine of the 12 boats it had in tow. The boat succeeded in getting off the bank, but as the current was strong and the wind high, the barges were swung to the Virginia shore, and nine of them sank. The boat was also damaged. The loss to the Brown company will be about $20,000.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Will You Please Report to General Lyon Post?

Citizens of East Liverpool and vicinity, you will confer a great favor on the comrades of General Lyon post, No. 44, G. A. R., if you will help the memorial committee by sending them information respecting the names of comrades who have answered the last roll call, and are entitled to a place on the roll at Memorial Hall. You can address Quartermaster McCain, chairman of the committee, or any comrade of the post, verbally or by letter. Give name, regiment and company. Read carefully the following, showing those who are entitled to place:

First—The names of deceased soldiers who were citizens of Liverpool township when enlisted, and who were honorably discharged.

Second—The names of deceased honorably discharged soldiers buried in Liverpool township.

Third—The names of all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who, having enlisted outside of Liverpool township, and afterwards being citizens of Liverpool township, and having died therein, were buried elsewhere.

Information is also desired concerning Andrew Dray, A. Marshall and John Murray whose names are entitled to a place in the monument. Any information regarding the regiments and companies to which they belonged will be thankfully received.

Special Aid Free to Tourists

If you intend to get away from the rigors of winter, make your arrangements now. J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines, 360 Fifth avenue, Pittsburg, will help you arrange for a trip to California or to Florida and the south. It will be a pleasant one if you consult him. He won't charge a cent for his services which will include selection of route, the procuring of through tickets, reservation of sleeping car accommodations, and arranging all details. Better drop him a letter today and find out the big help he can be to intending travelers. *

Get Out of the Cold.

You may quickly pass from a cold to a warm climate via Pennsylvania lines from East Liverpool, the direct tourist rate route through Chicago and St. Louis to California, and through Cincinnati or Louisville to Florida and the south. For details apply to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, Pittsburg. *

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Willis Kinsey is ill at his home in Avondale street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lane, Gardendale, a son.

The street force are not working today as the streets are too slippery.

The business arc circuit was, Saturday evening, out for an hour.

George C. Morton will leave tomorrow for Salem where he will spend the holidays.

J. F. McCoy, an employe of the light company, is ill at his home in Second street.

James Heckathorn has been granted a pension of $6 per month with back pay from June 14.

French Kerr, a student at the West Penn. Pittsburg, is spending the holidays in the city.

By being flagged near Rochester this morning the train due at 8:20 was delayed 25 minutes.

Mrs. J. N. Rose is again seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. McFarland, Fairview.

Travel to Allegheny from this city was very good this morning. Twenty-five people went up on the first train.

No arrests were made during Saturday evening and yesterday, and everyone about city hall was taking life easy this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Laughlin and family left Saturday evening for Los Angeles, where they will make their future home.

The rear axle of a dray owned by Toby Pilgrim broke in Second street, this morning. The casks on the dray were uninjured.

The Princess came up from Pomeroy this morning with a model barge of salt for this place. Several hundred barrels were in the shipment.

Solicitor Grosshans left today for Lisbon. The motion for a new trial in the Hayes damage case, against the city, will be argued tomorrow.

Manager J. B. Hoefgen returned today from Boston where he was called on business connected with the street railway system of a western city.

Fireman William Terrence, who has been off duty on account of illness, will, it is expected, return to duty tomorrow. He has been ill for several weeks.

The household effects of Charles Chetwynd, of Trenton, were received at the freight depot Saturday afternoon. The family will reside in Washington street.

Street Commissioner Finley this morning hauled a lot of lumber to the Jethro bridge. The city will erect a new stairway at the east end of the bridge.

This morning a number of baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny. Nine were sent from the Second street station, and 13 were put on the train at East End.

Jason H. Brookes, who is in Guthrie, O. T., has sent word to relatives that the remains of Judge Martin will not arrive here until Thursday instead of tomorrow morning, as was expected.

Miss Mamie Polk, the little daughter of Landlord Polk, of the Thompson House, left today for a visit with friends in Ripon, Wis. The little lady is full of pluck and will make the trip of 700 miles alone.

A special from Trenton this morning states that the potters of that city are preparing to go on a strike unless the manufacturers grant them some modifications to meet the changes made in the matter of designs. The potters in this city put no dependence in the story.

Section Foreman Hickey and a force of 15 men, began work this morning relaying the Cleveland and Pittsburg tracks from a point below Union street, to the street railway crossing in Second street. The work will require several days. This part of the road has been in poor condition for some time.

The delegate from the Brotherhood, who has been in Trenton for the past few weeks, returned Saturday morning. The differences were settled, and all preparations were made for a consolidation with the Potters' National union, and within the next 13 days the National Brotherhood of Operative potters and National Potters' union will be united, with headquarters in this city.

WANTS GAGE CURBED.

Chandler Calls His Actions "His Insane Career."

THE FOR SILENCE ON CURRENCY.

He Declares It Political Suicide For Republicans to Open Discussion of the Money Question—Should Take Care of Hawaii and Cuba.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Senator Chandler of New Hampshire has written a letter to the Washington Post in which he says:

"If the secretary of the treasury and his single gold standard associates will cease their demand for impossible currency legislation congress will pass the necessary appropriation bills, properly take care of Hawaii and Cuba, there will not be a serious party division during the session, and there will be an adjournment in May. Business will revive, the treasury receipts will equal the expenditures, the balance of trade will continue in our favor, and the Republican party will in November, 1898, elect a majority of the house in the fifty-fifth congress.

"On the other hand, if Secretary Gage continues to press upon congress a bill, the object of which, he says, is 'first, to commit the country more thoroughly to the gold standard, and the immediate effect of which is to throw doubts upon the sincerity of the president's declarations in favor of continued efforts to secure bimetalism, a political turmoil will arise in congress which will split the now united Republicans in fragments while it will unite and consolidate the now incongruous opposition. It is not feasible to retire the greenbacks; there is more probability that a bill will be sent to the president to increase their amount. It is not possible to secure the passage, through either house, of a bill making the greenbacks into gold notes or authorizing bonds payable in gold. The effort to do either thing will probably result in the passage of a bill for the redemption of the greenbacks in silver dollars and for the payment of all United States bonds in gold or silver coin, in the discretion of the president, who will be commanded to exercise his option for the advantage of the government and not for the advantage of the creditor.

"With such an uproar in congress as these proceedings will create with western congressmen embroiled therein, with presidential vetoes, as threatened by Secretary Gage, under angry discussion, it will happen that all business enterprises and funds and stocks will be disturbed, prices will fall, insolvencies will increase and the Republicans will lose the congressional elections in 1898 as disastrously as they did in 1890 and beyond the hope of a favorable reaction in 1900, at which time, therefore, a Bryan Democratic president and congress will be chosen.

"Whether we are to have one of these results—political safety or the other, political destruction—depends entirely upon the course to be pursued by Secretary Gage and those who are pressing him forward, namely, the Gold Standard League of New York, and the self-constituted monetary conference. How much Secretary Gage cares for the Republican party is not known. Whether President McKinley, whose good faith toward bimetalism is coming to the test, will stop his secretary in his insane career, is not known. It is to be hoped he will. But no political situation has been clearer than the present to sound eyes since the Republican party began its marvelous career 42 years ago. There are times for all things. There is a time to move and a time to keep still, and now is the time to so keep.

"It is simply political suicide for the Republican party in this congress to affirmatively open the discussion of the money question and to bring on yeas and nay votes upon currency legislation. We ought to await the progress of international bimetalism, the advent of business prosperity and the filling of treasury by the normal workings soon to be seen of the new tariff law. Shall we wait for these things or rush on to self-destruction? President McKinley must decide. Will he act for his people or for his plutocrats? Upon his answer will depend the events of 1898."

NO PLACE FOR RAILROADERS.

Warned to Keep Away From China by a United States Consul.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The first report to the state department from United States Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, contains a warning to American railroad men not to go to China for employment. Says he:

"The American only invites starvation who comes here without a definite contract of employment with some reputable firm made before he leaves America. I must advise United States railway employees that there is at present no market for their labor in China, and, should more roads be constructed, there will be a market only if these roads are built by Americans."

The consul general says he has had many inquiries from American railroad men as to the chance for employment in China, so he describes the small Chinese railroad system to show the hopelessness of looking in that direction for work. There are only two railways in operation with a total of 293 1/2 miles. They employ only 27 foreigners, of whom four are engineers and the managers and division superintendents. The operatives are practically Chinese and a foreigner cannot compete with them. The highest salaries natives are the telegraph operators at $40 per month. Engineers get $40 to $50 and train hands and trackmen $6 to $10 per month. The pay is in Mexican dollars.

Gideon Denies It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—F. M. Gideon, the clerk of the general land office, who was referred to by Thomas Reddington in the testimony before the senate Pacific railroad committee as having changed the land office records so as to throw 5,000,000 acres of government land to the Northern Pacific road, has made a clear denial of the charge.

NEW THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

One on Broad Line. May Be Established in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—There is talk of establishing in New York a theological school which shall train a ministry which shall be not only in thorough sympathy with the special problems of the day, but fully capable of dealing with them in the most practical way.

Those thinking of the new enterprise have considered the splendid equipment of Union Theological seminary, its already liberal endowment, and the aims of those in charge, in the belief that with the execution of the work of that institution upon broad lines the university idea could be realized.

Although the necessary endowments have not yet been secured, enough has been learned, it is said, to assure those interested that nothing else now prevents the carrying out of the project.

The aim is to make the seminary in time a great center of missionary activity. After the study of the great historical lines of worship, the practical application of worship in the daily life of the church will be discussed, with a view to training men for more reverent and effective administration of church ordinances. The mission courses are elective, and have been chosen by more than half of the 150 students in attendance.

WILL PREACH FOR NOTHING.

Rev. Dr. Farrar Relinquishes a Salary of $6,000 a Year.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Rev. Dr. James Farrar, pastor of the First Reformed church, Brooklyn, has determined, as soon as matters can be adjusted to give his life to the preaching of the Gospel without pay. The salary which he relinquishes is $6,000 a year.

His object is the bettering of the spiritual condition of the people of the vicinity of Idlewild, Westmoreland county, Pa., the well-known picnic resort, near where he was born.

PROBABLE SUITS OVER TAXES.

Ex-Secretary of State Chilton's Bonds-men Have Not Settled.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 20.—The state board of public works, acting under the advisement of Attorney General Rucker, has agreed that all corporations doing business in the state which paid their taxes to William E. Chilton, secretary of state under the late Democratic administration, instead of to the auditor, as the laws direct, will have to pay such taxes again or their charters will be declared forfeited.

Ex-Secretary Chilton has made no settlement with the state, but his bondsmen still promise to make good the amount of their liability, $10,000. In addition to this his indebtedness for corporation tax is $18,180.

A delegation of attorneys addressed the board of public works and represented that the proposed action of the auditor is unjust, and if it is attempted the state will have to pay the costs of 1,400 suits. General Malcolm Jackson said that Chilton's shortage should be investigated by the criminal courts.

MURDERERS BACK IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Chris Merry, charged with the murder of his wife, and James Smith, alleged accomplice of Merry, arrived in Chicago, from Princeton, Ky., where they were arrested. Both men were confronted by Joseph Hickey, upon whose confession they were arrested, but they stoutly denied any knowledge of Merry's death, and were finally placed in jail pending an examination tomorrow.

A TWO-HEADED BABY.

LEE, Mass., Dec. 20.—A two-headed baby was born here to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Dowd. The child died soon after birth. It had two heads, two pairs of shoulders, two arms and a stub of an arm between the neck, two backbones, terminating at the base of the spine, one pair of lungs and weighed 14 pounds. Mrs. Dowd is under five feet and weighs only about 100 pounds. The parents are of old Yankee stock.

CORRIGAN TO BE CARDINAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—It is semi-officially announced that the college of cardinals at Rome decided at a caucus held recently to confer the cardinal's hat on Archbishop Corrigan, and at the next consistory, which will be held in January, official action will be taken in the matter.

SIR FRANK LOCKWOOD DEAD.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Sir Frank Lockwood, Liberal member of parliament for York City since 1885, is dead.

NOW ENGLAND'S TURN

Her Fleet Said to Be Active In Chinese Waters.

RUSSIANS NOW AT PORT ARTHUR.

China Persuaded That It Is For the Good of the Country—Japan Expected to Protest—The Chinese Emperor Advised to Move His Capital.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The correspondent of The Times at Peking says: "China approves of the Russian fleet wintering at Port Arthur, being persuaded that this action is taken in the interest of China and necessitated by the German occupation of Kiao-Chau."

A dispatch from Shanghai says the occupation of Port Arthur by Russia cannot fail to provoke popular indignation in Japan, where the public opinion is already excited over the Kiao-Chau affair.

According to another dispatch from Shanghai the high officials of the Chinese court have advised the emperor, in view of further complications, to remove the court to Nanking (the southern capital). The dispatch says it is reported there that overtures have been made to England to exercise protection over the Yang Tse valley and the West river, and that numerous rumors are current regarding the activity of the British squadron in Chinese waters.

The Times, commenting editorially on the situation in China, says:

"Instead of the Kaiser's mailed fist we have Russia's velvet glove; but the grasp is not less vigorous and unyielding. Great Britain ought now courteously to invite China to extend the same privilege to the British fleet at Chusan."

Telegrams from all the continental capitals show that Russia's step at Port Arthur is regarded as tantamount to a permanent occupation and a reply to Germany's action.

The Japs are likely to loudly protest. A St. Petersburg correspondent says there was no agreement between Russia and Germany and the latter simply warned Russia when the occupation of Kiao-Chau was already decided upon.

The Novoe Vremya pretends that Japan has no cause for complaint "since China is only giving the same shelter to Russian ships as Japan had hitherto so kindly afforded."

This view is not held in Berlin, where the papers are already talking of the possibility of Prince Henry having to shake his mailed fist at Japan, that is supposed to be secretly backed up by England.

Some of the Berlin papers express anxiety, but most of them welcome the news from Port Arthur as justifying the German position at Kiao-Chau if not as a final evidence that Russia and Germany are acting together. Curiously enough, Emperor William visited the Russian ambassador on Friday night on his return from Kiel, ostensibly to congratulate him on the name day of Emperor Nicholas. The visit lasted an hour. This is no doubt now that the emperor and the ambassador discussed Chinese affairs.

The Paris papers, without pretending to be deceived by Russia's innocent explanations, are pleased with the action of the ally of France.

The burden of Viennese comment is, what will England do?

The British fleet in Chinese waters consists of one ironclad, nine cruisers and 18 smaller men of war.

GERMANY AFTER HAWAII.

A Startling Story Told In Boston—The Kaiser Said to Intend to Seize the Islands and Also Hawaii—Sensational Cypher Dispatches.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—A story of startling international importance is told here. It purports to disclose a remarkable coup planned by Germany, and declares that the ambition of the German emperor and his advisers by no means stops at the acquisition of territory in China. The recent acquisition there, it is declared, is to be simply a base of operations. The fleet just sent out from Kiel under command of Prince Henry, it will be recalled, is provisioned for 15 months.

It is expected, according to the report received here, that before that time has elapsed Germany will have been so firmly entrenched at Kiao-Chau as to be able to strike a killing blow at any influence the United States may hope to exercise in the Pacific ocean by seizing Hawaii from under the very noses of the Americans.

Indeed, it is even hinted that Germany now feels sufficiently well settled to go further. Samoa, it is also declared, will be seized. From the vantage ground of Hawaii, Germany is said to feel that she could menace and control the United States and bend the great republic to her will. A warning blow having been struck at Haiti, a later pretext might be sought to possess a port in the island and menace the United States on the east as well.

Private cypher dispatches received by the Boston agent of an important firm of German capitalists are said to order him to dispose of the firm's holdings in this country on account of the threatened hostile move of the German government.

RUSSIANS AT PORT ARTHUR.

Squadron to Winter There With China's Acquiescence.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 20.—It is announced that a Russian squadron under Rear Admiral Ronnow has entered Port Arthur on the Chinese coast, with the acquiescence of the Chinese government.

The squadron intends to remain at Port Arthur throughout the winter. This is due solely to the need of a temporary winter station and involves no question of forcible occupation or hostile demonstration or any intention against China, Germany, Japan or any other power.

CATHOLIC FOES OF QUOR.

Arrangements Made For the Next Total Abstinence Convention.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 20.—The national convention of Catholic Total Abstinence societies, in Boston next August, was the subject of a large and enthusiastic conference of delegates from the Boston diocese Sunday. Among those who spoke were Rev. John L. Lowry of St. Paul, in behalf of Archbishop Ireland, and Rev. Patrick H. Riley for Archbishop Williams.

The convention will be presided over by Rev. Father Cleary, "the Father Matthew of the United States," and addresses will be made by Archbishop Ireland and Rev. Father Doyle of the Paulist fathers. A message of greeting will be read from Pope Leo, endorsing the movement and bestowing his blessing upon the doings of the convention. The committee in charge intended to invite Archbishop Martinelli to be present. In connection with the convention there will be a parade in which 20,000 men and boys will participate, the marching clubs coming from New York, Philadelphia, Providence and every town and city in Massachusetts.

CHINESE MINISTER'S VISIT.

Will Attend Christian League Celebration in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception to Wu Ting Fong, the Chinese minister to the United States, who is expected to visit this city this afternoon in connection with the anniversary exercises of the Christian League. A feature of the celebration will be a parade of Chinamen from the mission at Tenth and Race streets to the Academy of Music, where the exercises are to be held. Nearly 5,000 admission tickets have been printed and it is expected that all of them will be used.

Wu Ting Fong and his secretaries will be met by a reception committee consisting of Mr. Poole, Mr. Bond, George Griffith and other representatives of the Christian League and a delegation of the Chinese merchants along Race street. On Tuesday he will visit the Chinese mission, in the work which he is deeply interested, and will probably also accept invitations to visit Gramps' shipyard and the Baldwin Locomotive works.

VICTIM'S GRAVE READY.

Proof That Lingo Intended to Kill Miss Berry in New Jersey.

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 20.—Two boys have found an open and empty grave about four feet deep near Pensacoken. Wagon tracks led to and from the hole, which was in a lonely part of a dense wood. Chief of Police Linderman made an investigation, on the theory that the grave was dug by Francis Lingo for the purpose of burying in it the body of Miss Catherine Berry, whom he endeavored to lure to that locality two weeks ago under the pretense that a wealthy woman had sent him to meet her in response to an advertisement for a position as a companion.

The wagon wheels are similar to those made by a wagon owned by Lingo. John Gaines stated that he loaned a shovel to Lingo. Three persons, whose names are not divulged, state they saw Lingo coming from the woods late at night, carrying a shovel. He returned the shovel the next day.

RALEIGH STARTS TO CHINA.

Departure of the Cruiser Excites Considerable Comment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The sending of the cruiser Raleigh to Chinese waters has excited much comment here. It is held to indicate that important dispatches have been received from Minister Denby and that the Raleigh goes on his recommendation.

Secretary Long denies that there is any significance in his order to the Raleigh, but admits that the Asiatic squadron is to be strengthened. The gunboat Helena was given sailing orders also and is on her way to China. This, however, has been in contemplation some time and is not regarded as unusual.

Washington Hearing Dead.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Washington Hearing, proprietor of The Illinois Staats Zeitung, one of the leading German papers of the northwest, and postmaster of Chicago during the last term of President Cleveland, died suddenly of heart disease at his home, Michigan avenue.

MR. DAVIS IN TROUBLE

His Case Is Being Discussed by Ministers.

WORD WAS SENT FROM CHICAGO

He Was Admitted to Steubenville Presbytery at the Spring Meeting in East End and Is Well Known to a Great Many Persons in This Place.

The Steubenville Gazette contains the following startling statement concerning a man who is well known in this place:

"It has transpired since the recent meeting of the Steubenville presbytery that the Rev. Ferdinand Davis, who organized the University class here, was not altogether what he claimed, a Scotch Presbyterian minister of good standing. It seems that while here he was admitted to Steubenville presbytery on a certificate from Scotland, but some suspicion being aroused, inquiry was made of the Scotch presbytery, and the certificate was declared bogus. Meantime the Steubenville presbytery had dismissed him to the Chicago presbytery, and the matter was laid before that body, resulting in further damaging disclosures. The extent of his misdoing it is difficult to determine, for the matter was not referred to in open presbytery."

The question was raised by Reverend Lowry, of Wellsville, who had been in correspondence with the stated clerk of the Chicago presbytery.

Mr. Davis was admitted to the Steubenville presbytery at the meeting held in East End last spring when he delivered a masterly sermon. He has many friends here who will hear more of the particulars before they pass judgment on the matter.

THREE DEATHS.

That Is the Record of the City For Two Days.

Last evening about 6 o'clock Mrs. Mary J. Forrest dropped dead at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Curry, West End. Deceased was aged 84 years, and has been a resident of the city for many years. The funeral services will be held Wednesday.

Mrs. Phoebe Kell died Saturday night at the residence of her son, George O. Kell, Fifth street, from cancer of the stomach, aged 64 years. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Interment will be made at Riverview. Friends of the family are invited.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Beardmore died this morning at her home in Lincoln avenue from a complication of diseases, aged 29 years. A husband and one child are left to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Stephen's church. Interment will be made at Riverview.

Two Cases.

J. K. Williams has entered suit against Samuel C. Dyke for $95.

Robert Potts, an infant, through his guardian Thomas Potts, has commenced an action against George Barnish for $17.45 claimed due for work and labor. The cases will be heard Thursday by Squire Rose.

A Main Burst.

Saturday morning the gas main to the new Sebring pottery burst in the river, about 20 feet from the Ohio shore, with a pressure of 180 pounds. The damage will be repaired as soon as possible.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Bert Ainsley was an Allegheny visitor today.

—John Braden, of McDonald, was in the city yesterday visiting friends.

—Mrs. Will Taylor, of Sixth street, spent the day in Pittsburg.

—John Ferrel, of Sixth street, spent yesterday with his wife in East End, Pittsburg.

CHALLENGE IS ACCEPTED

Rovers Will Play Against Homestead.

ONE HUNDRED IS THE STAKE

The Contest Must Take Place on a Given Date, but the Liverpool Players Would Prefer to Have a Series With a Game in Each Town.

Manager Maxwell, of the Homestead football team, has accepted the challenge of the Rovers to play for $100 a side, provided the game is played at Homestead next Monday. The Rovers are perfectly willing to stand by their agreement, but it is probable they would prefer neutral grounds upon which to play the game. A series could be arranged, one to be played in each city, and in case of a tie the final game to be played on neutral grounds.

A well known checker paper this week contains a problem by L. J. Vair, the Ravenna checkerist, who is well known in the city.

John Parry, the Homestead boxer, is in the city, and will probably take part in an entertainment New Year's eve, to be given by the East Liverpool Athletic club.

TID BITS.

Dodger Gathers Them While Wandering Through the City.

Bought some oranges Saturday night last; plump and tempting looking; peeled 'em; inner skin pure white; temptation increased; took full mouthful; anticipated glorious feast; ugh! awful! sour enough to make the teeth of a cast iron monkey chatter and give a laughing hyena fits. Selah. Turn on the light. Made me wish Mr. Canning had an option on the whole orange trade and had closed the deal.

Fakir in the Diamond labored under difficulties Saturday afternoon. Cold nipped his whole physical organization; stamped feet; wrung hands; blew nasal organ; pounded chest; said big bad words; bought an option on Florida; kicked over store box and made a bee line for a healthy gas fire and swore that he never did like the infernal game of freezeout anyhow.

Bring on your candidates for mayor. The woods are full of 'em. Chase 'em out of the bunch and into the openin'. Here's the tallysheet to date: Stevenson, Smith, Wyman, Gilbert, Bough, McClain, with the Democracy yet to hear from and Jethro still out in the frost. Must be a big salary in view.

"Heretic" sends in the following conundrum, and asks that "Dodger" shall answer the same, to the best of his ability: "Will a true holiness man pay his debts, said debts having been contracted before the cleansing process took place in his inner man?" Dodger makes answer, in the language of the Reverend DaFoe, at one time pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, East Liverpool: "Yes, a true holiness man will. That's one of the first things he will think of and do. He cannot be a true holiness man and do otherwise." As Dodger indites this matter, the devil in the sanctum says: "Say, Dodger, I'm powerful glad to know that. I reckon that DaFoe knew what he was talkin' about? He was a mighty good man, even if he did belong to the ROTTEN GANG Holiness Taylor gets hot under the waistcoat about. But, say, Dodger, suppose you whisper that answer of DaFoe's through the columns of the NEWS REVIEW. It might be a mighty good thing for some of the merchants and business men in this neck of woods, and might possibly help the printer along."

When a so-called holiness man stands in the pulpit and, under the guise of sanctification and holiness (?), uses language fit only for the slums and the saloons, he must be not only a fakir but a fool, and the next thing the public may expect is to hear of the fellow charging so much per head for admission to see and hear him. When such a fellow stands in the pulpit and calls a man a liar, he has but a very slim chance to play on a lyre in glory, even if a flock of cherubims should endeavor to "boost" him over the wall.

DODGER.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

The Sons of St. George will make note that an important meeting will be held next Wednesday night, December 22. Very important business will be transacted. All members should be present. By order
WILLIAM WACE,
President.

A POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Thieves Blew Open the Safe at Canal Dover, O.

CANAL DOVER, O., Dec. 20.—The post-office here has been robbed. The safe was blown open and $800 in money, stamps and valuables taken. It is believed that professionals did the job. The front door was jimmied and the thieves crawled through the money window to gain the rear part of the office, where they worked unmolested, while Night Watchman Oordan McCleary patrolled in front.

The burglars helped themselves to $75 belonging to Postmaster H. W. Streb, together with an unknown amount of cash belonging to a local building and loan association of which he was treasurer. In the safe was also a diamond ring, belonging to Miss Clara Streb, deputy postmistress, and four registered letters to parties here. These the robbers took also.

The evening before the robbery Postmaster Streb placed in the First National bank $1,400 worth of stamps for safe-keeping. Postoffice Inspector A. R. Holmes strongly suspects three men who have been in the city for three days. He is now following them.

COTELL DECLARED NOT GUILTY.

His Lawyers Claim They Know the Real Murderer.

AKRON, Dec. 20.—The lawyers of Romie Cotell, the boy who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life about a year ago for killing Alvin Stone, his wife and hired man, say the boy was wrongly convicted. They assert that a confession was extorted from him by the detectives, when, according to experts, he was irresponsible. The lawyers say they know the real murderer and have almost enough evidence to convict him. They promise to cause his arrest soon.

Opposed to Sunday Funerals.

YOUNGSTOWN, Dec. 20.—Rev. Frank Domer, pastor of the Wilson Avenue Methodist church, has gone on record as opposed to Sunday funerals. In his sermon he said: "The crowds which attend Sunday funerals are prompted largely by curiosity and kindred motives rather than any respect for the dead or sympathy for the friends. The Sabbath should be a day of rest, which it cannot be for the pastor, undertaker and others when the labor of a Sunday funeral is imposed upon them."

Aged Woman Abused.

ASHTABULA, Dec. 20.—Two masked burglars entered the house of Mrs. Margaret Barrett at Jefferson and spent some time in looking through the entire house for valuables, but could find nothing. They awakened Mrs. Barrett, and, by torturing her with lighted matches, tried to get her to tell where valuables could be found. Lighted matches were held under her finger tips, to her eyebrows, and some of her hair was burned. Mrs. Barrett, who is 75 years old, was alone in the house.

Guilty of First Degree Murder.

WARREN, O., Dec. 20.—Louis Yura has been found guilty of murder in the first degree, after a trial lasting several days. Yura was accused of killing Isaac Hill, a farmer, whose house he visited for the purpose of robbery.

HAPPENED IN THIS STATE.

Robert Watt, for robbing cars at Deforest got a year in the penitentiary.

Rev. O. A. Hills, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church, Wooster, has resigned, owing to ill health.

Alfred Sinclair, aged 35, a druggist of Beallsville, committed suicide by shooting. His father, Judge Westner Sinclair, hanged himself some years ago.

Samuel Harpster, aged 17, was arrested at Wooster for shoplifting. He had a box with him with an ingeniously constructed trap door to conceal stolen articles.

Youngstown chamber of commerce will this week select a committee to try to secure the proposed government armor plate plant.

Mrs. Sarah Chapman Wilson of Buffalo, 86 years old, was found apparently demented in the streets of Cleveland. Her son, S. V. Harris of St. Paul, came on to care for her.

Mrs. Ballington Booth Ill.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Mrs. Ballington Booth, wife of the commander of the Volunteers of America, is dangerously ill in the Presbyterian hospital. She is suffering from an injury to a blood vessel near the heart, which may prove fatal. Mrs. Booth's condition became so alarming two weeks ago that she was obliged to discontinue a tour she was making in nearby states and go to the hospital for treatment.

Four Killed by Locomotive Explosion.

REPTON, Ala., Dec. 30.—On the Bear Creek logging road a locomotive exploded, killing the engineer, John O'Conner, the fireman, Jack Chipper, and two trainmen, John Johnson and Henry Vickery. The explosion was caused by a defective flue.

A Spanish Official to Resign.

MADRID, Dec. 20.—Lieutenant General Marin, captain general of Puerto Rico, is about to resign, owing to the impossibility of reconciling the different parties in the island with a view of establishing autonomy.

Injured In a Tunnel.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 20.—William Kelly, aged 22, was instantly killed and H. G. Hickson, aged 25, seriously injured by a locomotive while walking in the Bely line tunnel between Dolphin and Lanvate streets.

Explosion on a Vessel.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—In an explosion aboard the British steamer Southern Cross, from Buenos Ayres for Liverpool, which has arrived at Madeira, several persons were killed or wounded.

An Old Catechism.

At a meeting of the Worcester Anti-Quarian society Senator Hoar said that when he was a boy in Worcester a catechism was in use of which the following is a sample:

Where is hell?
Under the earth—a place of darkness.
Who live in hell?
The devil, his angels and bad men.
What do they do in hell?
They curse God and sin continually.
Do you deserve to go to hell?
I do.

For any one to assert that petroleum oil possesses no therapeutic power is simply to make an assertion of ignorance, for petroleum, or rock oil, as it is sometimes called, is, it is well known to those who have paid any attention to the subject, used with the most beneficial results in all chronic bronchial and pulmonary disorders.

Seven Injured In a Collision.

PONTIAC, Ill., Dec. 20.—An open switch on the Chicago and Alton railroad was the cause of a collision between the St. Louis limited passenger and a freight train on the side track. The brakeman, whose duty it was to close the switch, was unable to move it. The passenger train was approaching. He jumped on the track and signaled for it to stop. The engineer applied the airbrakes and reversed his engine, but it was too late, and the passenger went crashing into the freight. Seven people were injured.

Opposing the Prizefighters.

TRENTON, Dec. 20.—Rev. A. W. Wishart of the Central Baptist church preached against the proposed bringing of out-of-town pugilists here to perform before an athletic club. He will ask the other ministers and church people generally to join him in asking the police to interfere. Rev. Mr. Wishart also spoke against the present practice of giving entertainments with local boxers.

Bryan Attended Church.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 20.—Mr. Bryan attended divine services Sunday at the Union Evangelical church and was also the guest of President Diaz at the distribution of prizes to the Mexican exhibitors at the Chicago and Atlanta expositions.

Plate Glass Strike Ended.

KOKOMO, Ind., Dec. 20.—The plate glass strike is over, the 1,600 men in the Kokomo and Elwood plants having accepted the company's proposition for polishes to be paid for piece work. Both factories will resume operations this week.

German Vessels Off Spithead.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The German cruisers, Deutschland and Gefion, have arrived off Spithead on the way to China. Salutes will be exchanged today.

Baseball Magnate Very Ill.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Charles Byrne, president of the Brooklyn baseball club, is lying at his home in this city in a very critical condition.

Had a Stormy Passage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—The United States gunboat Marietta has arrived here after a stormy passage from the north.

Storm of Sleet In Texas.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20.—It is learned from private sources that one of the worst sleet storms in the history of Texas has prevailed in that state.

MR. THOMPSON'S HYMN

Was Rendered at the First Presbyterian Church.

STRONG WORDS FROM REV. SWIFT

In a Sermon Delivered at the Methodist Protestant Church—Professor Reed Continued Preaching on Revelations—Other Services in the City Yesterday.

The largest congregation gathered for a long time, and that means much for the First Presbyterian church, heard Doctor John Lloyd Lee last night deliver one of the best sermons he has ever preached in this city. The subject, "The Everyday Soldier," was treated in a comprehensive manner, the gentleman showing that there was no doubting the bravery of the young men of America, and that all would rise to defend the nation's flag, yet a very small proportion of them dared to put on the armor and fight for Jesus—that they left to the women.

The music attracted much attention. Mrs. J. C. Thompson sang as a solo the beautiful "Oh to Be More Like Jesus," one of W. L. Thompson's latest compositions. Portions of it were then rendered by the choir and congregation.

Methodist Protestant Church.

At the morning service the pastor spoke from the 21st verse of Jude: "Keep yourselves in the love of God." The reverend gentleman spoke along the line of our individual responsibility, as free moral agents, and said in part:

"Look to your individuality; you are a responsible creature, a keeper, and in a measure a master. God first created Adam and then said unto him: 'Adam, this is the garden of Eden; you are a keeper thereof and must impress yourself upon what I have given you—that which I have entrusted to your care; you are, to a great extent, master of this domain; you can partake of all the fruits and flowers around and about you, except of the tree of life; in your ability to do as commanded, and hold yourself in restraint, you show the full measure of your power and ability to take care of that which I have entrusted to your care.'"

"My friends, God has not placed you here as mere machines, but as free agents, with power to will and power to choose. The Master places no limit to your choice. Oh, the height, the depth, the breadth of the power given unto man. What are we ourselves? What relationship do we bear to ourselves? God may call unto you and you can say unto Him, the infinite creator of all things: 'No, sir, I will not let you into my heart.' God will not force his way into your heart. He stands knocking at your heart's door and will come in and sup with you and you with him; but you must first open the door, respond to the knocking, and invite the holy spirit to enter. Isn't this a wonderful thought, God, the all wise, the all powerful, the infinite, knocking at the door of a man's heart; poor, finite man, and asking to be taken into fellowship? You must know yourself. There is a large class of people who believe that, as Jesus died for all, then all will be saved. Don't let such a thought enter your mind for a moment. You will be saved or lost; the choice, God given, rests with you. There are those who believe in a second choice or second probation. You have no authority for any such hope. Now is your opportunity. God has given you this life in which to prepare for eternity, and if you fail to embrace this opportunity then are you doomed, and doomed forever.

"You are responsible. No man goes into sin and crime without his own consent. You can resolve, if you will, to resist evil, and God, the greatest of all powers, the all-conquering, will carry you to victory if you so desire. By yielding to sin and depraved tastes there will surely come a time when your will power for good will be lost; then you are no longer a free agent, but a slave, under the whip and lash of an awful master. You are yourself when you are master and when you retain your individuality, and stand in the reflected light emanating from God. You cannot corrupt the light from the sun. It will shine through and beyond impurities and retain its purity. Just so is the light reflected from the Son of Righteousness, cleansing and purifying upon every hand. Let the light from the Holy Spirit shine upon you and enter your heart and life, and you will surely know yourself aright, for time and for eternity."

The edifice was crowded with an attentive audience when the pastor com-

It Is Ridiculous—

For any man to claim to make money by selling at a loss. It's simple to say it, and simple to swallow it. If the farmer raised only grain for grain what he planted, he would starve. If the merchant sells his goods dollar for dollar at the price he bought them, he is out in time, labor and expenses.

—WE MUST LIVE.—

And we live by our profits, but we don't prey on the public. Our price is actually lower than the much bragged up "below cost" of others. Good goods, fresh and new, don't have to be sold below cost to get rid of them. Our goods are good—they pay us to handle and you to buy. This week, and until Christmas, we have the center of our large room filled with

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, DEC. 20.

The Christmas number of the New York Crockery Journal is a beauty, and its advertising pages show the renewed activity in the pottery trade.

Even though Secretary Gage has not proved to congress that his currency schemes amount to anything, he has shown that when it comes to vociferousness he is almost equal to a Kansas Populist.

With free trade a dead issue and free silver passed from view, the Democratic press is making strenuous efforts to transform the Cuban question into a matter for discussion in the congressional campaign. The extent to which the poor old party is pushed is thus made decidedly plain.

Over in Bowling Green they tried the experiment of making every tramp who comes to town and happens to be caught, work out his freedom on a stone pile. It has worked very well, and a large number of wanderers have cracked stone during the days specified by the mayor, and now no tramps walk around Bowling Green.

SOUND money does not necessarily mean that the Republican party must adopt every one of Secretary Gage's ideas in order to stand by the St. Louis platform. That gentleman may find, after congress is done with some of his schemes, that even though he is at the head of the treasury department his views are not the views of a great many sensible men.

A CHANGE.

"To the victor belongs the spoils, is a slogan that savors of barbarism," is what the Leontina Reporter says of the sentiment in the Republican party concerning a modification of the civil service law. Did the Reporter utter the same sentiment in the months immediately following the first election of Grover Cleveland to the presidency, or did it howl itself hoarse with that phrase which so soon became the stock in trade of the average Democratic editor, "Turn the rascals out." We are not in position to say what the Reporter did at that time, but if it was then the rock ribbed Democratic organ it has been in recent years, it followed its leaders and railed at civil service. Thus do we see how the shoe pinches when it happens to be on the other foot.

PROTECTING THE FLAG.

A few years ago Judge Caldwell, of Cincinnati, introduced into congress a measure for the protection of the American flag. It was warmly supported in the house of representatives, but it was taken up in the senate when some of the members were thinking more of money than they were of patriotism, and the bill never became a law. Now the world comes that a similar measure will be presented soon after the holidays, and an effort will be made to have it passed.

There is no reason in the world why such a law should not be on the statute books of the nation. It should not only be there, but it should be enforced to the letter, providing a penalty that will speedily break up the practice or punish those who transgress the law with a severe punishment. If the people cannot in any other way be taught to respect and honor the emblem of their country, let them be made to feel the force of their country's power. Perhaps that will teach them the lesson they should long ago have learned.

MR. THOMPSON'S HYMN.

menced his sermon, following up the line of the "woes" described in the book of Revelations. He said, in part:

"The second woe is subsequent to the year 783, embracing a period of 396 years and four months, dating from Mohamet's endeavor to conquer the world through the power of the sword. For 58 years the forces of the infidels were held upon the banks of the river Euphrates. In 1057 the Euphrates was crossed. Peter, the Hermit, raised the cry that the cross was being overshadowed by the crescent and that the holy city of Jerusalem was in danger, and men, women and children responded to the call and became crusaders, with the object of rescuing the holy city from the grasp of the infidel. Now comes the invention of gunpowder at the hands of a Dane, and in 1453 the walls of Constantinople were battered down, and the pride of the west fell. From 1057 to 1453 is embraced 396 years and four months, fitting in with the prophecy to an absolute certainty; from the crossing of the Euphrates to the downfall of Constantinople. Right here let me say that, while the Romish church, as a church, was full of villainess, demon worship and other awful features, there were notable exceptions in favor of God and the right. God has had a sacramental host in the ranks of all religions. In the ranks of the Roman Catholic church there was embraced much that was pure and good. It was so then—it is so today. Good and true men, in all churches, rise superior to bigotry, superstition and demon worship. The Roman Catholic church, as a church, then trailed the flag of King Emanuel in the dust. Now comes the time described subsequent to the fall of Constantinople. What is the great and mighty power described? It is the open book of God; opened to the masses by Luther, and, under the providence of God, will never again be closed, no longer a sealed volume. Under the rule and power of the Roman Catholic church, the blessed Bible had been virtually a sealed book to the masses, the people. But now, oh praise the Lord, the good tidings of great joy contained in the scriptures, in holy writ, are cast before the common people. Luther, the son of a Mansfeld miner, reads from the holy scriptures in the streets of Wittenburg, proclaiming the fact that men are not saved by works, but faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of the only true God. Faith in Christ is now to lift up the souls of men. The news went to Rome as to what this little monk was doing. Wetzel was then engaged in the sale of indulgences; indulgence to commit sin, any kind, grade or class of sin, even to the heinous crime of murder, for the investment of so much money, to fill the papal coffers. Luther was horrified at the awfulness and depravity of such a measure, and remarked: 'I'll put a hole in Wetzel's drum.' Then Luther appealed to the Pope, for he was loyal to the Roman Catholic faith, and believed in the Pope as he believed in Christ. Denunciations come hot against Luther from the hands of the Pope. Luther was astounded and dismayed. He was commanded, in no uncertain tones, to yield and act and write in accordance with the wishes of the Pope of Rome; he wanted to be loyal to church and pope; but a still, small voice, as from God, commanded him to obedience to a higher power than any human being, pope, cardinal, priest or layman; and thank God, he obeyed that voice. Again came the thunders from Rome, the seven hilled city, these seven thunders; but Luther stood firm and conquered, through God and the right, as God has himself proclaimed shall eventually be the result in all cases backed by right and truth. Out of darkness of evil, sin, corruption and the power of Satan, comes Wickliff, Melancthon and a host of others, into the marvelous light and liberty of God. "Write not," was God's command to Luther, and he obeyed God rather than the pope, and the history of Luther's God-given courage and victory has thrilled the world unto the present time and will continue to so do while time shall last, and until the glorious message contained in the 'open book,' the living flaming, blessed word of God, shall electrify and enlighten all the nations of the world."

The 'woes' will be continued on Sunday night next at the Christian church. You are invited to be present, and will be given a warm welcome.

THREE ELDERS ARE OUT

Through the Adoption of a Long Resolution.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH DIFFERENCES

culminated in a Warm Congregational Meeting Yesterday Morning When Professor Reed Was Sustained by a Majority of the Members.

A difference of opinion regarding the merits of Prof. O. S. Reed, pastor of the Christian church, has existed for some time. Yesterday it culminated in what was probably the warmest congregational meeting ever held in the city.

Three officers of the church, Elders Vodrey, Scott and Crites, have been anxious to have Professor Reed resign, but many other members of the congregation have been equally anxious to have the gentleman continue in his position. A number of stormy meetings have been held, and, while persons acquainted with the facts have discussed the matter with warmth, but few of the details have ever reached the public ear. At length it became necessary to settle the troublesome question, and that is what caused the unusual scenes yesterday.

A resolution was introduced by E. D. Marshall. It was signed by 27 male members of the church, and when put to vote was adopted by 187 yeas to seven nays. The debate was long and animated.

The resolution recited at length the troubles of the past few months, and was freely discussed, being passed by a vote of 187 to 7. The official result of the meeting was given out today as follows:

"By vote of the congregation, 187 to 7, the offices of O. C. Vodrey, John Scott and Emmitt Crites were declared vacant."

ARRESTED IN INDIANA.

Sheriff Gill Found a Butler Township Teacher.

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—[Special]—Geo. H. Rogers, one of the most promising young men of Butler township, is in jail, having been brought here from Logansport, Ind., this morning by Sheriff Gill.

Rogers was a school teacher, boarding with the parents of Miss Ella Mockerman, aged 15 years, of Teagarden. When he discovered his plight he fled to Indiana. The special grand jury indicted him, and Sheriff Gill going to Columbus secured the required requisition papers. From there he went to Logansport, and arrested young Rogers. They arrived here this morning.

ALL HAD A SKATE.

It Was Indeed a Very Dangerous Day.

"The whole town has a skate on today" remarked a bright young man this morning as he gazed on the slippery streets and then proceeded to cut more pigeon wings than he ever believed his gymnastic training allowed.

But it was the same condition throughout the city. The streets were a sheet of glass, and happy was the man, woman and child who escaped without a bump or two. There were a great many accidents. A small boy broke his arm at the Sixth street school, and a stranger from Cumberland fell on Market street and cut his chin.

On the River.

For Sunday considerable business was transacted along the river yesterday. At this port only three boats tied in, but the business was in excess of that done on Sunday for some time.

The Kana wha, Ben Hur and Keystone State passed up, and all had large cargoes of poultry.

Passed down, Virginia, Lorena, Boaz, Pacific, Crusier, Jim Brown, William G. Horner, Mariner and John W. Alies.

The Boaz will go to New Orleans, and at Louisville will increase its tow.

The rain will not cause the river to rise materially, and today the marks at the wharf registered 13.6 feet and falling.

Keystone State and Kanawha are the packets down this evening.

The steamer Clifton passed up at noon with a barge of fire brick in tow.

Two Parties.

The dance given Saturday evening at Brant's was largely attended.

A number of young people from the city will attend a reception to be given Christmas eve, at New Brighton.

Once Lived Here.

Wesley Chain, a former resident of the city, is dangerously ill at his home in New Castle with an attack of typhoid fever.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

WELLSVILLE.

MANY ACCIDENTS

But No One Was Seriously Hurt During the Day.

Wellsville was a sheet of ice today, and people were slipping in all directions, but no serious accidents happened. Any number of people fell, and bumps and bruises were very common. Horses had a hard time of it, and a number fell.

"If we haven't an ordinance compelling property owners to put salt on the pavements when they are icy we should have one," said a prominent resident. "We have had a good example of the need of it today. I'll wager I have seen a dozen people fall who would have escaped if residents had only sprinkled a little salt."

The News of Wellsville.

Robert Farriday, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg engineering corps, is home from Cleveland, where he has been on business.

Harry Irwin was seized by a sudden illness on the street, Saturday night, but was able to walk home.

Will Whitten spent Sunday with friends in Toronto.

Frank Howard is home from Corry, Pa., where he has been attending school.

Patrick Neville, a former operator at the shops, who has been working in Columbus, talked to a few of his Wellsville friends at the station while on his way to Smith's Ferry.

Father Halligan went to Cleveland this morning.

Mrs. John Wooley went to Pittsburg this morning.

Mrs. Powell, of Queen City, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Homer Householder spent Sunday with friends across the river.

It was reported this morning that a robbery had occurred at a Main street business house, but there seems to have been nothing in the story.

It is said that a prominent business firm will dissolve partnership the first of the year.

Two Liverpool men fought on Second street Saturday night. There were no arrests.

The little child of Conductor Swartz died yesterday of grip fever.

Will Kiddy died yesterday. Typhoid fever was the cause.

Lisbon's Library.

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—[Special]—The library association last Saturday transferred its library of 285 volumes to the trustees of the Lepper library, for which Mrs. Lepper, of Cleveland, recently donated $10,000. The building will be completed in a few weeks.

The Usual Rest.

Business at the freight depot has been very light during the last few days. This slump is caused by the holidays, and during this time of the year all over the line business is slack.

Abraham Lincoln said "The tariff question will last as long as the government itself." Therefore every voter should study it. The Home Market Bulletin of Boston is the best help. It is in our club list.

BELL PEOPLE TO PAY

The Accumulated Taxes of Five Years.

WAS PUT ON THE DUPLICATE

The Auditor of State Instructed Auditor Harvey to Collect For Every Instrument in the County—East Liverpool Leads With a Big Margin.

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—[Special]—The Bell Telephone company has escaped taxation for many years in Ohio, but now it has been placed on the tax duplicate of this county, charged with taxes amounting to $16,625.58. The amount assessed is due on the telephones in use in the county by the Central District company. They number 839. These instruments are the exclusive property of the Bell company, and are leased by them to other concerns. Auditor Harvey received instructions last week from the auditor of state to proceed in the matter, as the attorney general had given it as his opinion that the property is taxable. The amounts to be collected for the different towns are as follows:

Liverpool, $6,303.67; Wellsville, $1,604.94; Salem, $4,450.64; Lisbon, $1,605.75; Leetonia, $690.20; Salineville, $723.04; Palestine, $927.36; Columbiana, $307.78; Waterford, $12.20.

About 25,000 instruments are in use in the state.

And His Chest Seriously Hurt—He Is Not In Bed, and Will Recover—He Believed He Was in His Room When at the Head of the Stairway.

J. D. West is suffering from the results of an accident.

Last night Mr. West heard the door bell ring, and knowing he was wanted left his bed. He walked to the hallway, but not yet quite awake he imagined he was still in his room. Taking a step forward he plunged down the stairway, rolling to the door. The sound aroused his family and they hastened to the spot. Mr. West was returned to bed and a physician was called. He found that the gentleman's nose was cut and broken, his chest was injured and his ankle sprained. He also sustained a number of bruises.

While cleaning a window in the McFall building, Saturday afternoon, a little girl pushed her hand through the glass. Half a dozen stitches were required to close the wound.

SELLING A SYSTEM.

Sistersville Telephone Line to Change Hands.

It is announced that the telephone system owned by McGhie & Moore, of this place, in Sistersville will be sold early in January.

The gentlemen put in the exchange before the Bell company entered that section, but when they had it in working order their opponents stepped in and secured a large proportion of the business with the result that the pioneers were willing to quit.

Excursion Rates.

Following the annual custom, ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines will sell excursion tickets Dec. 24, 25 and 31, 1897, and Jan. 1, 1898, for the Christmas and New Year holidays. Tickets will not be sold to adults for less than 35 cents, nor to children for less than 15 cents. Return limit of excursion tickets will include Jan. 4, 1898. For rates, time of trains and further information please apply to nearest ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines.

A New City Directory.

R. L. Polk & Co., of Pittsburgh, who published the last East Liverpool city directory, will issue their second edition for 1897-8 early in the spring, and their representatives are now in the city gathering the necessary information. The second edition will be off the press about April first, and the publishers promise improvements in the information, making the work more worthy of patronage.

Better Than Ever.

Miss Kennedy, the hypnotist, entertained a large audience at the Grand last Saturday night. She has improved wonderfully since she was last in the city, and gives a much better performance than formerly.

Miss Kennedy will be here during the entire week, and it is safe to say that she will display her abilities before a large audience each night.

One Horse Fell.

This morning a horse tied in West Market street broke loose and started to run off. It reached the Diamond, when it slipped and fell, and was captured by the street force.

Many teams that were not sharply shod had trouble traveling the streets, and many horses fell.

Will Shoot Tomorrow.

The live bird shoot to have been held last Friday at Rock Spring and postponed on account of the bad weather, has been transferred to the grounds of the Junction Park Gun club, Rochester, and will take place tomorrow. A number of sportsmen from the city will attend.

Have You Seen 'Em?

Those elegant cabinet pictures at Dick Edmonston's. No other photographic work in this city can compare with that done by Edmonston.

Mush and Milk Social.

Christian church, Tuesday, Dec. 21, Benefit church fund. Admission and supper, 10 cents. Commence at 5 and close at 10. Bring all your lady friends.

The Citizen's National bank, with headquarters on Fourth street, at the old postoffice, is now ready for business.

A NIGHT SONG.

Under the white moon, Nita,
The lilies lie awake,
And red as blood in flower and bud,
And all for your sweet sake,
The eager rose o'erleaps the close
And climbs the columned wall
To hide his face in the drifts of lace
That over your lattice fall.

The dead sweet scent of the woodbine
Some languid breeze hath stirred,
And out of the dark, dew haunted park
Floats the pipe of a restless bird,
And far and faint the gurgle and plaint
Of the wood brook sounds alone
As I listen and pine for some answering
sign,
Some whisper of thine, my own!

I lie with the lilies, Nita,
Under thy lattice bars,
And the infinite night brims over
With the glory of moon and stars,
And the wooing woodbine's passionate spice
Out of the darkness blows
And faints and dies with the mingled sighs
Of perfumed lily and rose.

Yet rest thee, my beloved, since
No prayer of mine may win
The crystal walls of slumber
That shut thee softly in.
But, oh, that the mystic angel
Who keepeth the pearly key
Of sleep would open some door of dreams
And lead thee, sweet, to me!

BUFFALO BILL'S START.

More Accident Made the Well Known Scout a Showman.

An old Nebraskan was speaking of Buffalo Bill recently, and incidentally he told how he came to engage in the show business.

"Cody was for years a government scout on the western plains," said the Nebraskan man, "and it was when he conducted the buffalo exterminating expedition for the entertainment of the Grand Duke Alexis in 1870—I think it was—that he got his name. Cody at that time distinguished himself by the number of buffaloes he killed, and thereby earned his cognomen, which was given him by the duke. While he was well known as a scout, he would probably have never been widely known as a showman except for an accident.

"It was in 1881 that the people of North Platte, Neb., near which town was Cody's ranch, decided to celebrate the Fourth of July, and at the suggestion of John Kieth, who is a wealthy ranchman at Sutherland and North Platte and formerly claim adjuster of the Union Pacific, they selected a wild west show. Cody was one of the men most prominently interested in the scheme, and to him was left the work of securing the cowboys and Indians to help out the show. In North Platte at the time was an old stagecoach owned by Jim Stephenson of Omaha, who was the proprietor of the Deadwood-Sidney and other western stage lines. At the suggestion of Cody the Indians were to attack the coach and be repulsed by the cowboys and soldiers.

"That Fourth was the hottest celebration of American independence ever seen in Nebraska. The Omaha papers had men to cover it, and it attracted a crowd from all parts of the west. The programme which Cody and Kieth arranged included riding wild horses, shooting, rope throwing and all the other amusements and business proceedings of a western man.

"It was a few days after the entertainment, if such it may be called, that Matt Kieth, no relation of John, but an old time western man, told Cody that it was a big thing and ought to be repeated every Fourth of July. Cody at once said that it was something new in American entertainments, and he believed that by taking the aggregation east he could make money. The matter was discussed in North Platte, and finally Cody said that he would advance the money and start out. He did so, and his success is well known.

"When he first started, he had but a small show, but he has added to it. He got with him Major Burke, Sherman Canfield, Bill McCune, and last, but by no means least, Nate Salisbury. There was a quartet that cannot be beat, and with Cody boomed the business. Bill has made and spent a dozen fortunes and is today making money like a cranberry merchant."—New York Press.

Struck the Right Man.

During a visit to Massachusetts a distinguished author was invited by a friend to a meeting of an agricultural society, then holding its annual session in the town.

The invitation was accepted, and author and friend took seats near the door. Nearly every farmer in the house had something to say. Finally the president, pointing toward the author, said:

"Everybody's given us a talk to-night, except the farmer down there by the door—I mean the brother with the hazel beard, the boots and the slouch hat. I can tell by his looks that he's a farmer, and nothing but a farmer, and I call upon him to take the floor and tell us how crops are in his neighborhood."

The man referred to was Hamlin Garland, but he was equal to the occasion, and rising he said:

"Yes, I'm a farmer, and I'm proud of it, but just now I'm doing a little literary work in order to get money enough to pay off my hands."—Atlanta Constitution.

His Advantages.

"Our organist has an easy time of it."

"In what way?"
"When he wants his wheel pumped up, he attaches it to the organ."—Chicago Record.

NAMES OF PEARLS.

About Five Thousand Small Ones Can Be Bought For Nine Dollars.

Pearls are named according to their size. The very large are called paragon pearls; when the size of a cherry, cherry pearls; medium are called piece pearls; smallest, dust pearls. The oval and long are termed pear pearls, while badly formed specimens are known as baroques. The value of pearls varies, of course, with the quality and general colors, but the piece, seed and dust pearls always have a market price.

The cherry and paragon are sold on an entirely different basis. If many fine ones are on the market at a time, they may be had at reasonable rates. Some years they bring almost any price. The last two years especially, the dealers say, there has been a great scarcity of fine pearls, although there is no falling off in the supply of the small stuff.

When a pearl exceeds one carat in weight, it is sold separately. Under that weight they are sold in parcels and become less valuable as they become smaller. The smallest dust pearls collected average about 5,000 to the troy ounce and are rated at about $9 per ounce. If, on the contrary, one paragon weighing an ounce (or 150 carats) was on sale, it would bring any amount from $30,000 to $200,000, according to quality.—Philadelphia Times.

RESOLUTION.

DECLARING IT NECESSARY TO IMPROVE Pennsylvania avenue from Mulberry street to the east line of the lands of T. J. Andrews.

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Council of the City of East Liverpool (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring) it is necessary to improve Pennsylvania avenue in the following manner: First, by grading the roadway and the south sidewalk between the points above named and grading the north sidewalk from the west line of lot 108 to the east line of the lands of T. J. Andrews. Second, by setting stone curbing and completing the sidewalk on the south side of said street by paving from Mulberry street to the east line of lot 281 and setting stone curbing and completing the sidewalk on the north side of said street by paving from the west line of lot 108 to the east line of lot 1852. If necessary to make a complete job the old pavements shall be taken up and relaid.

Third, by constructing the sewers and drains and street intersections necessary to make a complete job of work. All bricks for sidewalks and street crossings shall be of the first grade of roadway paving bricks. The work shall be done in accordance with plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer and under his supervision. The expense of the said improvement shall be levied and assessed on the property bounding and abutting thereon in accordance with the law and ordinances on the subject of assessments. The assessments therefor to be paid in ten annual installments if deferred and the same collected as required by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed. Bonds may be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time prescribed in the assessing ordinance, and the City Clerk is hereby directed to have this resolution published for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the corporation and to notify the proper persons of the passage of this resolution and make return as required by law.

Passed this 23d day of November, 1897.

FIREMAN LEE KILLED

Well Known Riverman Was Horribly Mangled.

CYLINDER HEAD BLEW OUT

The Piston Broke Both His Legs and Injured Him Internally—Death Claimed Him While on the Way to the Hospital.

Two accidents occurred on the Ohio river Saturday, and one resulted in the death of a well known riverman.

The towboat B. O. Wood was on its way to Pittsburgh and had passed Parkersburg but a short distance when the accident happened.

No cause for the accident is known. The boat was making fast time with a large tow and Fireman William Lee was resting in the engine room. Without any warning the head of the cylinder on one of the engines burst and the piston rod crashed through, striking Lee with a terrible force, breaking both legs and injuring him internally. Those in charge of the boat did not think he was seriously hurt and turned back to Parkersburg to summon medical attention. As there is a marine hospital in Wheeling, Captain Elsey thought it best to take the injured man there, but while on the journey death claimed him.

Lee had been on the river a number of years, and was known by many persons in this place.

Saturday afternoon, a short distance below Bellaire, the Sam Brown ran into the Ohio bank, and lost nine of the 12 boats it had in tow. The boat succeeded in getting off the bank, but as the current was strong and the wind high, the barges were swung to the Virginia shore, and nine of them sank. The boat was also damaged. The loss to the Brown company will be about $90,000.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Will You Please Report to General Lyon Post?

Citizens of East Liverpool and vicinity, you will confer a great favor on the comrades of General Lyon post, No. 44, G. A. R., if you will help the memorial committee by sending them information respecting the names of comrades who have answered the last roll call, and are entitled to a place on the roll at Memorial Hall. You can address Quartermaster McCain, chairman of the committee, or any comrade of the post, verbally or by letter. Give name, regiment and company. Read carefully the following, showing those who are entitled to place:

First—The names of deceased soldiers who were citizens of Liverpool township when enlisted, and who were honorably discharged.

Second—The names of deceased honorably discharged soldiers buried in Liverpool township.

Third—The names of all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who, having enlisted outside of Liverpool township, and afterwards being citizens of Liverpool township, and having died therein, were buried elsewhere.

Information is also desired concerning Andrew Dray, A. Marshall and John Murray whose names are entitled to a place in the monument. Any information regarding the regiments and companies to which they belonged will be thankfully received.

Special Aid Free to Tourists

If you intend to get away from the rigors of winter, make your arrangements now. J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent of the Pennsylvania lines, 360 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, will help you arrange for a trip to California or to Florida and the south. It will be a pleasant one if you consult him. He won't charge a cent for his services which will include selection of route, the procuring of through tickets, reservation of sleeping car accommodations, and arranging all details. Better drop him a letter today and find out the big help he can be to intending travelers. *

Get Out of the Cold.

You may quickly pass from a cold to a warm climate via Pennsylvania lines from East Liverpool, the direct tourist rate route through Chicago and St. Louis to California, and through Cincinnati or Louisville to Florida and the south. For details apply to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh. *

20-22 BROADWAY, SALEM, O.

MAN, POOR MAN. She Didn't Give a thing to him. He can't find a thing in his sock, even with his specks.

That man's wife didn't come to our place to spend her Christmas money. It didn't go 'round. Santa Claus' money will reach farther and buy more at our place than elsewhere. Prices prove it, and then you know we give credit if the money runs short.
